About the Artist:

Joshua Alonzo Angeles is originally from Whitmore Village, Hawai'i, and currently resides in White Center, Washington. He received his BBA from the Albers School of Business and Economics at Seattle University. He works to promote diversity in the workplace and serves as a mentor to young adults of color in the sales and management industry. Joshua believes in a society free of elitism and a society that creates homogeneity rather than constraints. He believes that social justice is a practice rather than a theory. Joshua is active in the Filipino and Hawai'i community in Seattle. Most of Joshua's artwork depicts traditional motifs of the Pacific and elements of race and culture.
