

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 38

FALL 2014

NUMBER 1

ARTICLES

- A Comprehensive Economic and Legal
Analysis of Tying Arrangements Guy Sagi 1
- cGMP Violations Should Not Be Used as a Basis for FCA Actions Absent Fraud Kyle Faget 37
- Toward a Federal Constitutional Right to Employment R. George Wright 63
- The Confusing Standards for Discretionary
Review in Washington and a Proposed
Framework for Clarity Judge Stephen J. Dwyer, Leonard J. Feldman, and Hunter Ferguson 91

COMMENT

- License to Discriminate: How a Washington
Florist is Making the Case for Applying Intermediate Scrutiny to Sexual Orientation Kendra LaCour 107

NOTES

- Ironie Simplicity: Why Shaken Baby
Syndrome Misdiagnoses Should Result in Automatic Reimbursement for the Wrongly Accused Jay Simmons 127
- E-books, Collusion, and Antitrust Policy:
Protecting a Dominant Firm at the Cost of Innovation Nicholas Timchalk 161