TABLE OF CONTENTS
1 Prologue
1 Sound Minds
3 Spirited Teaching
6 Solid Learning
8 Sensible Preparation
9 Satisfying Choices
10 Sound Futures
14 Curriculum
14 First-year Requirements
14 Upperclass Requirements
15 Recommended Upperclass Courses
15 Upperclass Elective Courses
19 Seminars and Special Courses
19 The Law Library
21 Faculty & Administration
21 Full-time Faculty
31 Legal Writing Faculty
31 Adjunct Faculty
33 Admission & Financial Aid
33 Admission
34 Enrollment Options
35 Admission Resources
35 Costs
35 Financial Aid
35 Law School-Funded Programs
36 Other Aid Programs
39 How to Apply for Financial Aid
39 Review of Types of Financial Aid
40 Institutions Represented

Application materials are enclosed at the back of this Bulletin.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR
Summer Semester 1993
June 28: Summer term classes begin
August 5: Summer term classes end
August 10: Examinations
Fall Semester 1993
August 23-25: Introduction to Legal Learning Workshops and Entering Student Orientation
August 26: Fall term classes begin
December 3: Fall term classes end
December 8-18: Mid-term examinations
Spring Semester 1994
January 10: Spring term classes begin
March 14-18: Spring break
April 26: Spring term classes end
April 29-May 12: Examinations
The dates noted in this calendar are those relevant to 1993 entering students. A more comprehensive academic calendar is available for enrolled students.

For more information:
Office of Admission
University of Puget Sound
School of Law
950 Broadway Plaza
Tacoma, Washington 98402-4470
(206) 591-2252

Pictured on the cover:
Gigi Tsai ’93
B.A. magna cum laude
Wellesley College
Legal intern at
Rush, Hannula & Harkins, Tacoma
In the Pacific Northwest, midway between Seattle, Washington’s largest and most beautiful city, and its thriving state capital, Olympia, sits a four-building complex in downtown Tacoma—a complex that represents a distinctive approach to legal education. This is the Norton Clapp Law Center, home of the University of Puget Sound School of Law.

The Chief Justice of the United States said of it in 1980, “No other school in the nation can do what you are doing here, as you draw together the three branches of the legal profession—teaching, practice, and judgment.”

At Puget Sound, students take an active part in the profession for which they are training. Through a rigorous curriculum, extensive co-curricular and employment opportunities, and instruction by distinguished legal professionals who compose the teaching faculty, lawyers-in-training and lawyers-in-practice are reminded daily that they are parts of a whole.

Our location in the only true law center in the western states draws them even closer. Housed with the Law School are the Washington State Court of Appeals, the Pierce County Office of Assigned Counsel, a number of private law firms, and other law-related enterprises. Each day the Law Center brings together law students, law professors, judges, and practicing attorneys, creating on-site opportunities for our students to observe and test what they learn in the classroom against the work-a-day world of legal professionals.

Located in the heart of the city, the School is two blocks from state and federal courts and within walking distance of the major South Puget Sound law firms. Tacoma itself, a major Pacific Rim port city and part of the “gateway to Alaska,” offers students a lively urban environment which represents the ideal setting for our brand of legal education.

It is home port to the University of Puget Sound School of Law: A student body of 800; a blend of traditional textbook and innovative hands-on legal education; fully accredited by the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools; and the School that former Chief Justice Warren Burger over a decade ago termed “a remarkable experiment in legal education.”

The experiment is working.

SOUND MINDS: Puget Sound Students

You will learn a great deal in law school—from classroom discussions, formal and informal dialogue with faculty, involvement in out-of-class activities, and on-the-job legal experience. In the end, however, you will learn the most from your fellow students.

At Puget Sound, those students range in age from 20 to 59. While the average age at entry is 27, about 30 percent pursue legal studies directly after undergraduate school. The remainder have already engaged in an impressive array of professional careers.

Our students have received bachelors’ degrees in over 60 different disciplines; some 12 percent already hold at least one post-baccalaureate degree. They represent nearly 300 colleges and universities from across the country and beyond. On average, they rank in the top quarter of their college graduating class and place solidly in the 80th percentile on their LSATs, with a performance of 38 (on the “old” test) and 159 on the new
I'm a prime example of this law school's commitment to diversifying not only its student body, but the legal profession.

James C. Leath '95
B.A. and Merit Scholar
Johns Hopkins University
M.B.A. in Business
The University of Chicago
Former Divisional President
Trinity Industries, Inc.
Dallas, Texas

Reciting these straightforward statistics is an effortless exercise. Far more difficult to describe is the extraordinary mix of students that makes Puget Sound unusual if not unique among the nation's law schools. Here you will find Phi Beta Kappa graduates and Fulbright Scholars; corporate executives and college professors; published writers and political analysts; military veterans and Peace Corps volunteers.

What does all of this have to do with your legal education? In many ways, it defines that education.

Were you enrolled at Puget Sound today, you might find yourself seated in class between a refreshingly eager recent university graduate and a seasoned senior college administrator. In the library, you might share a study table with a professional musician, a landscape architect, and a structural engineer. On a lunch break you might exchange opinions with a physician, a psychologist, and a professor of philosophy. Returning home, you might share a ride with a photojournalist, a congressional aide, and a part-time paralegal.

We actively recruit students whose life experiences, personal accomplishments, and intellectual talents indicate exceptional promise for the study and practice of law. These energetic thinkers from all walks of life will become your teachers, your advocates, your friends.

Student records prove the point.

ELLEN BIERMAN '93 earned her undergraduate degree at Cornell University and her M.S. degree in Computer Science from the University of Washington. She has spent 12 years in the computer science industry because it "brings my artistic and scientific interests into harmony, combining the rigorous approaches of mathematics with the creativity of programming." Her attraction to the law, she tells us, "follows naturally from an interest in combining art and science. Law can incorporate both: Negotiation requires creative approaches; interpretation uses basic scientific method by developing frameworks for solving problems and analyzing complex phenomena." For the last two summers, Ellen has clerked at Seed & Berry, a top intellectual property law firm in Seattle.

Wellesley College graduate MELISA EVANGELOS '93, former fiscal and policy analyst for the Massachusetts State Legislature, devoted nine months to hiking, biking, climbing, and skiing her way through Washington's North Cascades prior to enrolling at Puget Sound. "I possess the qualities necessary to be a competent and compassionate lawyer," Melisa insists. "I am a clear and critical thinker, and I have excellent analytic skills. I have a passion for politics and for public service. And I do not seek merely the financial rewards so often associated with obtaining a law degree." An active member of the Women's Law Caucus and lead articles editor for the Law Review, Melisa last summer was a student associate at Perkins Coie, the Northwest's largest law firm.

Editor of the Law School's student newsletter, Prolific Reporter, DAVID ATKINS '93 entered law school immediately after June 1990 graduation from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. "I went to MIT because it represented both an opportunity and a personal challenge to rise to the highest standard of difficulty," says David. "Over the course of my undergraduate years, I learned more about myself — and my view of life matured a bit. I learned that the numbers in SAT scores and grade point averages are but a small measure of the value of a person. I have come to recognize that intelligence alone solves few problems, and that helping people work together to get things done is far more important.

JOHN PRENTISS '95 has come to the law in a circuitous fashion. “When I arrived in L.A. 20 years ago, giddy with the excitement of having sold my first screenplay to the movies and eager to taste the Hollywood good life, had anyone even suggested to me that someday I might want to become a lawyer, I’d have thought him crazy,” muses the Amherst College graduate. “And yet, today, at age 47, I find myself looking forward to a second career in law with an enthusiasm and sense of purpose probably more intense than anything in my youth. There was a time when spinning fantasies was enough for me. But, older now, and more politically aware, I think it’s appropriate at this stage of my life to take a more active role in our society — if not to change the world, then at least to deal in a substantive way with issues of consequence and with the problems affecting real people.”

JOHN DZIEDZIC '94, a summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Washington State University, left his post as Deputy Secretary of State to begin law studies at Puget Sound during the summer of 1991. “To the University of Puget Sound School of Law, I bring professional experience in government, a respect for democratic principles balanced with political pragmatism, a continuing desire to learn, and a commitment to do my very best,” he tells us. “From the School of Law, after three years of study, I hope to have accumulated the knowledge, discipline, and personal resources that will help me make a difference.”

John is well on his way. Ranked near the top of his class after first-year examinations, the University Scholar exudes enthusiasm for law studies. “I doubt I will ever be able to repay you for the pure joy of experiencing law school, UPS style,” John wrote in a letter to the Board of Trustees. “I fully expected the challenging intellectual stimulation. What I did not expect was the depth and breadth of professionalism within the institution.

“I always knew I wanted to go to law school. The faculty and staff here at UPS have but rekindled and reinforced my commitment with their own.”

We couldn’t have said it better.

SPIRITED TEACHING: The Puget Sound Law Faculty

In selecting, promoting, tenuring, and compensating their faculties, American law schools generally have valued publication and other forms of scholarship more highly than teaching. Finding that they must work within this system, most law professors devote their energies primarily to research and publication. For them, teaching becomes a secondary concern.

Puget Sound stands out in sharp contrast.

When the School’s Board of Trustees voted to establish a law school, they set teaching excellence as a fundamental goal. That important decision — made nearly two decades ago — today means that when the law faculty meet to make selection, promotion, and

I admire my colleagues’ enthusiasm and sense of purpose. Beyond their diversity, their achievements, they care. They care about their profession, and they care about their students.

Dean and Professor James E. Bond
Pictured at right
J.D. Harvard University
Order of the Coif
Author of the book
The Art of Judging

*Professor Ken Wing received his undergraduate degree from the University of California/Santa Cruz and his J.D. from Harvard Law School. A nationally noted Health Law scholar and author of the widely used textbook, The Law and the Public’s Health, he has been on the faculties of Duke University and the Universities of Southern California, California/Los Angeles, Oregon, and North Carolina.*
tenure decisions for professors, they first consider teaching aptitude and performance.

Against this backdrop, the faculty’s production of absorbing and significant scholarship is impressive. In the past several years, they have published 15 books, including five national texts, and over 100 law review articles, book chapters, and book reviews. Their prolific, penetrating contributions to the nation's 20 leading law journals have been recognized in the first (1989) and second (1992) editions of the Faculty Scholarship Survey. The survey ranked Puget Sound among the “top 50” law schools in terms of scholarly productivity of its professors. Our faculty was the only one in the Northwest to appear on the list in both editions.

Their writing has appeared in publications such as the Stanford, Cornell, Texas, and Michigan law reviews, and in the Journal of Legal Education, Constitutional Commentary, Yale Journal of Law and Social Policy, International Journal of Law and Economics, and NYU Journal of Law and Politics.

As a student, you may take a first-year Civil Procedure class with Marilyn Berger, co-author (with Clinical Professor John Mitchell) of the casebooks, Pretrial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis, and Strategy, and Trial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis, and Strategy, now in use nationally at a number of law schools.

When you sign up for Criminal Law, you may have as your professor David Boerner, former Chief Criminal Deputy for the King County (Seattle) Prosecuting Attorney and author of Sentencing in Washington: A Legal Analysis of the Sentencing Reform Act of 1981, the definitive book on criminal sentencing in this state. In a speech at the School of Law when he was U.S. Attorney General, Richard Thornburgh called Professor Boerner “the leading expert on ethics in Washington State.”

You may study Property or Land Use Planning with Richard Settle, a member of the editorial advisory board of Northwest Land Use Review who has written two books, Washington Land Use and Environmental Law and Practice and The Washington State Environmental Policy Act: A Legal and Policy Analysis.

Your Health Law professor may be Ken Wing, author of the widely used textbook, The Law and the Public's Health, who in 1989 was named Distinguished Health Law Teacher by the American Society of Law and Medicine.

When you enroll in Constitutional Law, you may discuss freedom of the press issues with David Skover, whose opinions on a range of current constitutional topics are quoted frequently in national publications, including most recently the New York Times. Skover in the past several years has published “The Future of Liberal Legal Scholarship” for the Michigan Law Review, a lead article in the Texas Law Review titled “The First Amendment in an Age of Paratroopers,” another lead article in the Hastings Constitutional Law Quarterly, and yet another major piece in the Stanford Law Review. He also is co-author of the book, Tactics of Legal Reasoning.

As a participant in an advanced Corporations Seminar, you may engage in lively dialogue with Douglas Branson, one of the country’s most prolific corporate law scholars and author of over 20 articles which have appeared in the Northwestern, Cornell,
"Students who read, write, and analyze critically are well on their way to success in law school and at the bar. The ability to think through problems and devise creative solutions is a valuable characteristic in a law student. We are fortunate to have an abundance of students with those abilities here at Puget Sound."

Professor Douglas Branson
B.A. cum laude
University of Notre Dame
J.D. cum laude
Northwestern University
LL.M. University of Virginia
First in Class
Author of the forthcoming book, The Board of Directors
Charles Tweedy Distinguished Professor of Law
University of Alabama
Spring 1993

Vanderbilt, Tulane, Wake Forest, Minnesota, Emory, and Duke-Alaska law reviews, among others. Professor Branson, who maintains an active corporate/securities consulting practice, has been featured in a page-one article in the National Law Journal on the topic, “Experts: How Good Are They?”

Should you opt to take a Jurisprudence course, Dean and Professor James Bond may present to you and your fellow students provocative questions about the role of law and legal reasoning in a modern society. Author of more than a score of legal articles, he also has written four books: The Rules of Riot: International Conflict and the Law of War, Plea Bargaining and Guilty Pleas, The Art of Judging and James Clark McReynolds: I Dissent. Dean Bond serves on the Board of Advisors for the National Legal Center for the Public Interest and the Washington Legal Foundation, and on the Washington Advisory Committee for the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

Our faculty’s scholarly and professional service credentials reflect our commitment to the importance of teaching. The energy, experience, and skill of these 39 men and women challenge their students while speaking eloquently of their years at law schools like Harvard, Yale, Stanford, Chicago, Michigan, Columbia, and Virginia.

Their credentials accrue from beyond the academy as well. Virtually all our professors have distinguished themselves in law practice. They have joined us from Wall Street megafirms and prestigious smaller practices; from offices of the prosecutor and the public defender; from corporate careers and poverty law practices.

These faculty share a dedication to carefully conceived, intellectually stimulating teaching. They are faithful to their students and to their profession.

SOLID LEARNING: The Academic Program

A single mission drives Puget Sound’s academic program: preparing our students to practice law with competence and honor. We offer an education that: ✎ familiarizes students with both private and public law; ✎ sensitizes them to the ethical considerations that constrain the practicing lawyer; ✎ enables them to analyze problems — including the ability to identify significant facts, analyze and synthesize precedent, interpret statutes, and construct policy arguments; ✎ teaches them to write and speak with clarity and precision.

We emphasize that competent participation in the legal profession includes awareness of how legal doctrine evolves in response to society’s changing values and needs, and an understanding of how lawyers can implement those changes through the law.

Our students acquire these requisite skills through a rigorous traditional curriculum complemented by comprehensive skills training. Puget Sound seeks not to separate legal education from practice, but to fortify students’ mastery of theory by exposing them to the law’s practical side.

In the first intensive year, students concentrate on the highly traditional and prescribed basic courses, and on an intensive, year-long course refining legal analysis and writing skills. The principal form of instruction is the case method presented through Socratic dialogue between teacher and students. In this respect, the Law School follows the century-old tradition of American legal education.

Required second- and third-year courses include Constitutional Law I and II; Professional Responsibility; Evidence; and Persuasive Writing and Oral Advocacy. Because sound legal thinking is based on theory, we also require all students to take at least one advanced theoretical course. And, to assure that our students have an advanced level of understanding prior to participation in selected upper-division courses, the faculty recommends enrollment during the second year in Administrative Law, Corporations, and Individual Income Tax.

The upper-level, elective curriculum allows for choice, innovation, and diversity. It is during these years that our students experience the enriching blend of theoretical and practical course offerings. They may select either a broad, balanced program of study, or focus on a particular area of the law. For example:

- Students wishing to prepare for a career in Business, Corporate, and Tax Law will find more than 20 related courses taught by six career faculty members and a host of adjunct professors teaching highly specialized subjects. They also may secure clerkships with over 100 private law firms, government regulatory agencies, and corporations in the Western Washington corridor and beyond.

- Those who plan to practice Law in the Public Sector may choose from among 40 different course offerings taught by 12 members of the career faculty and seven adjunct professors whose specialties range from Employment Discrimination to State Constitutional Law.

- Environmental Law enthusiasts find not only 12 courses directly related to this field, but a variety of internships with the Port of Seattle, the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and the Washington Environmental Council, among others.

- Students interested in Courtroom Litigation will find a sophisticated skills program matched by few law schools in the country. This legal study component includes a series of classes in negotiation, mediation, and trial advocacy. In addition, the Puget Sound Law Practice Clinic allows participants to receive academic credit for actual representation of clients referred from agencies such as the Puget Sound Legal Assistance Foundation and the King County Prosecuting Attorney. Students assume responsibility for all aspects of a case, from initial client interviews through litigation. Under close faculty supervision, they work and act as licensed, practicing attorneys.

Our curriculum educates students for a diversity of law practices, large and small, metropolitan and rural, public and private, as well as for legal careers in business, management, education, government, and the judiciary. It equips Puget Sound graduates to practice in any state in the nation.
SENSIBLE PREPARATION: Co-Curricular Opportunities

When we talk about co-curricular opportunities at Puget Sound, we embrace in our definition a broad range of on- and off-campus activities which enrich and enliven our students’ academic pursuits. Many are available within the Law Center itself.

Students who aspire to practice with major corporate law firms find membership on LAW REVIEW a valuable asset. Members are selected based either on academic rank in class after the first year or by “writing on” (submitting an article which demonstrates to the Editorial Board the level of legal thinking, critical research, and writing skills required for membership).

Would-be courtroom lawyers polish their advocacy skills by participation in the MOOT COURT program. The Law School each year fields teams for a dozen moot court competitions at the regional and national levels.

Students with a passion for public service may join the PUGET SOUND LAW FOUNDATION, an active group of socially concerned attorneys and law students addressing human rights, environmental, and social issues in the Northwest.

Those drawn to improving the quality of life at the Law School itself find participation in STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION affairs the ideal outlet to accomplish the task.

Members of the ALASKA STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION, a group of students from Alaska and those with an interest in practicing there, meet regularly to share information about job opportunities, bar admission, absentee voting, and networking with over 100 Puget Sound law graduates now practicing in that state.

The INN OF COURT brings together a group of distinguished judges, senior trial attorneys, young lawyers, and third-year law students each month for spirited discussion and debate on an assortment of legal issues affecting members of the bar and bench.

A listing of these additional student organizations illustrates the scope of our students’ interests: AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION/LAW STUDENT DIVISION, AMERICAN TRIAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION, AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL, ASIAN/PACIFIC ISLANDER LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION, BLACK LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION, CHRISTIAN LEGAL FELLOWSHIP, CLIENT COUNSELING BOARD, CONDUCT REVIEW BOARD, ENTERTAINMENT/SPORTS LAW ASSOCIATION, ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY, FACULTY COMMITTEES, FEDERALIST SOCIETY, HISPANIC ORGANIZATION FOR LEGAL ADVANCEMENT, INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY, LESBIAN AND GAY LAW SOCIETY, NATIONAL LAWYER’S GUILD, PHI DELTA PHI, PHI ALPHA DELTA, WOMEN’S LAW CAUCUS.

This, then, is the Puget Sound program of legal education. It is a multi-faceted, theoretical and practical curriculum supported by a range of enrichment opportunities and operating in the only true law center in the West. It is a place where classes and even casual conversation bring together law students, law teachers, and law professionals — all united in the common quest for legal knowledge and legal service.

In effect, each hallway of this Law School and this Law Center is a classroom. Each encounter, a part of the curriculum.
SATISFYING CHOICES: Employment Opportunities For Students

The transformation from law student to legal practitioner involves a combination of formal and self-education processes: the ability to master the art of analysis and critical thinking, and the melding of theoretical work with clinical courses and practical experience.

Puget Sound’s excellent and expanding reputation among employers opens possibilities for our students to participate in many professional settings. For these students, it means earning money while in school, gaining legal experience in one’s chosen field, and making those all-important contacts which frequently mark the start of a successful career.

Well over 80 percent of Puget Sound law students have been employed in at least one law firm, legal agency, or other law-related position prior to graduation. Many have held two or three such jobs in order to strengthen and diversify their resumes. The Law School is in an enviable position when it comes to opportunities for legal employment.

Our location in the Western Washington corridor translates into an abundance of student employment options — options found at a select few law schools in the country. Situated in Tacoma’s lively Urban Environment, we are within walking distance of both the major South Puget Sound law firms and the state and federal courts, and an easy commute by car — south to Olympia, home of the state’s key government agencies, and north to Seattle, the Northwest’s largest legal community.

Since our Law School is the nucleus of the Norton Clapp Law Center, a complex which also houses private law firms and federal, state, and county agencies and courts, our students can spend out-of-class hours in gainful employment without even leaving the building.

Puget Sound’s Expanded Schedule (courses offered from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., 12 months a year) means that students can individualize their own daily routines — budgeting ample time for attending class, studying, commuting, and yes, holding part-time legal jobs. Well over 300 law firms, legal agencies, and area businesses each year actively recruit and hire University of Puget Sound law students for a range of law-related assignments.

Our students secure highly competitive summer associate positions with the Northwest’s largest and most prestigious law firms. Whitman graduate Ken Davis ’92 and Lori Terry ’92, a Gonzaga M.B.A New York University Associate, Riddell, Williams, Bullitt & Walkinshaw alumna, are new associates at Seattle’s Preston Thorgrimson Shidler Gates & Ellis following employment as summer interns last year. They join more than a dozen Puget Sound graduates already practicing with the firm. Claudia Crawford ’93, an honors graduate of Pomona College, spent her summer as a student intern at Short Cressman & Burgess in Seattle. Smith College graduate Mary Beyer ’92 today practices with 13 other Puget Sound graduates at Foster Pepper & Shefelman in Seattle after serving as a 1991 summer associate. Kim Deasy ’93, a 1989 graduate of Brown University and editor of Law Review, recently completed a summer internship with Bogle & Gates in Seattle. First-year students Yumi Petersen ’94, Dan Larsson ’94, and Margarita Latsinova ’94 also spent their summer with that firm.
Our students secure internships with multi-national corporations such as the Weyerhaeuser Company, for which CARA MAESTRETTI '93 (University of Washington) and COLBY PARKS '92 (Occidental College) recently worked.

And they intern with a host of federal agencies. Boston University graduate KIM WHITTLE '94 was a summer intern at the U.S. Department of Justice in the nation’s capital. Also in Washington, D.C., was MARK McLAUGHLIN '94, a graduate of the United States Military Academy who was employed by the International Trade Commission. ALAN COPSEY '93, who holds a Ph.D. in Ecology from the University of Oregon, and Oberlin College alumnus ALAN REICHMAN '93, formerly with Greenpeace, both served on the staff of the Environmental Protection Agency in Seattle.

Public sector agencies at the local level actively recruit Puget Sound students as well. University of Utah graduate KIMBERLY WASHBURN '93 has been a legal intern with the Salt Lake City Legal Aid Society. PEARL PIATT '94, who received her undergraduate degree at the University of Redlands, devoted summer 1992 to work with Evergreen Legal Services. Dartmouth alumnus MASARU KIBUKAWA '94 was among more than 30 Puget Sound students interning with the Washington Attorney General. And DAVID ATKINS '93 (MIT), RENEE GIOVARELLI '93 (Arizona), JENNIFER JOLY '93 (Washington) and SUSAN MIELKE '93 (Wichita State) were interns last summer with the Washington State Senate Services Committee.

Approximately 250 second- and third-year law students qualify each year for participation in Washington State’s innovative Work-study Program, one of only a handful of such self-help programs in the nation. Through it, legal employers hire our students and pay 35 percent of their salary, while the state underwrites 65 percent.

A Summer 1992 work-study roster shows, for example, that K.C. WILLIAMSON '94 (UC/Santa Barbara) is with the American Civil Liberties Union; CYNTHIA MARTINEZ '93 (Washington), the American Arbitration Association; and MADELEINE DILLMAN '93 (University of New Orleans), the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund. MICHAEL McKENZIE '93 (Evergreen) was employed by the Thurston County Prosecutor and ANGELA CARLSON-WHITELEY '94 (Evergreen), the Foundation for the Handicapped.

Talk to these students and you will hear the same theme: Working and going to law school can mix. The two, they say, are infinitely compatible.

SOUND FUTURES: Puget Sound Law Graduates

The most important measurement of a law school lies in the accomplishments of its graduates. Alumni/ae of the University of Puget Sound School of Law — some 4,500 fine practitioners since 1974 — today are widely dispersed throughout the nation and the world.

Although our students hail from all parts of the United States and beyond, approximately 80 percent on graduation have settled in the Pacific States — Alaska, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington. In each of recent years, increasing numbers have chosen to practice in the Southwest — Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Utah, and Wyoming.

While this demography reflects our graduates’ western orientation, it is hardly the whole picture. Puget Sound alumni/ae have shown solid success on bar examinations in 48 states and the District of Columbia. (We can’t explain why, but none have sought admission to the bars of Arkansas or Kentucky.) They are employed throughout the United States, its territories, and in 19 foreign countries from Australia to Africa, from Saudi Arabia to Switzerland, from Iceland to Italy. They are practicing in private law firms and corporations, as well as in the judiciary, academia, government, and public service.

Recently compiled employment statistics reveal that our graduates are engaged in:

- Private Practice 55 percent
- Government Service 15 percent
- Business & Industry 11 percent
- Judicial Service 10 percent
- Public Interest Law 3 percent
- Academics 3 percent
- Advanced Studies 3 percent.

At every level, they are assuming increasingly influential positions.

JOHN CARLSON ’78, former assistant to the president of the American Bar Association, today is a partner in the national megafirm of Brobeck, Phleger & Harrison. LUCY ISAKI ’77, a member of the University’s Board of Trustees, holds a partnership at Seattle’s Bogle & Gates. IRENE BRONSTEIN FISHER 78 (LL.M. New York University), a former associate with the Wall Street firm of Mudge Rose, has been named partner at Riddell, Williams, Bullitt & Walkinshaw. Environmental law litigator DUANE WOODS ’80 is a partner with Heller, Ehrman, White & McAuliffe, a major national firm. And former U.S. Supreme Court clerk GAY GELLHORN ’82 has been associated with the Washington, D.C., law firm of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering; currently, she is a law professor in the nation’s capital.

Among some 700 graduates pursuing careers in the public sector are JUDITH BILLINGS ’87, Washington’s Superintendent of Public Instruction; JOHN PAULSON ’88, an attorney with the U.S. Immigration & Naturalization Service; and JAMES STREET ’76 and JANE NOLAND ’75, elected members of the Seattle City Council. PAUL KING ’76, ART WANG ’84, RON MEYERS ’82, and JESSE WINEBERRY ’86 are members of Washington’s House of Representatives. Deputy Attorney General KATHLEEN SPONG ’77 is one of more than 120 Puget Sound alumni/ae employed by the Washington Attorney General.

Ambassador RUFUS YERXA ’76 is based in Geneva, Switzerland, as Deputy United States Trade Representative. JAMES McCLOSKEY ’80 is in New York where he is legal adviser to the Department of Environmental Conservation. CHRISTINE HESS ’87 is an Alaska Legal Services staff attorney. Among at least 50 graduates in the nation’s capital are NORRIS WASHINGTON ’84 with the Federal Trade Commission; GORDON CREED ’75, the General Services Administration; and ARTHUR WHITE ’83, Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts.

THOMAS O’LEARY ’77 is sector counsel with the U.S. Border Patrol in Tucson, Arizona. Operating out of Kenya, ROBERT MALETTA ’81 directs a primary health care program for 50,000 Sudanese refugees, a position he assumed after serving with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.
Sybil Vitikainen ’87 was born in Dublin, Ireland, and raised in Edinburgh, Scotland, where she earned an RN Degree. An intensive care nurse at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York City for eight years, Sybil, along with her family, relocated to the Northwest where the British native returned to undergraduate studies at the University of Puget Sound. She was graduated cum laude (top 10 percent) in 1983, then enrolled in law school. Today she serves as an attorney with the Pierce County Office of Assigned Counsel in an office located in the Norton Clapp Law Center.

Michael Gillie ’77 is an experienced arbitrator, mediator, and alternative dispute resolution administrator who has served as a member of the adjunct faculty. In 1984, Gillie founded United States Arbitration and Mediation, Inc., for which he serves as Executive Director. Today there are 34 franchise offices in the Pacific Northwest, throughout the U.S., and an international operation with offices in Canada, England, France, Germany, and Ireland.

Puget Sound graduates – some 4,500 fine practitioners – are pursuing careers in private law firms and corporations, as well as in the judiciary, government, and public service. At every level, they are assuming increasingly influential positions.

Pictured at right on the steps of the Temple of Justice:
Charles W. Johnson ’76
Supreme Court Justice
State of Washington

Tom Leavitt ’75 and Darcy Goodman ’75 are an active, involved husband-and-wife team. They have combined parenthood, community service, and two high-energy careers since completing law school 17 years ago. After a six-year stint in private law practice, Tom altered his professional path. Today he is president of Leavitt, Shay & Co., a major real estate development firm in the Northwest. He also is a member of the University Board of Trustees and the Law School Board of Visitors. Darcy has been a Seattle District Court Judge since 1986.
Back in the U.S., Puget Sound graduates are senior executives for corporations like Westin International Hotels (Catherine Walker '80, senior vice president and general counsel); the Weyerhaeuser Company (Sandy McDade '79, senior attorney); Seafirst Bank (Hwa-Tsun Feng '80, vice president and senior counsel); and the Space Needle Corporation (Stuart Rolfe '79, chairman of the board and CEO). Thomas Carrato '77 is company counsel for Monsanto Agricultural Company in St. Louis and Joel Beerman '74 is general counsel for Georgia Gulf Corporation in Atlanta. As we went to press, Lynn Edelstein Dubey '78 had just been promoted to vice president of ALPAC Corporation, a company operating 13 facilities in five western states.

Graduates pursuing careers in judicial service include Justice Charles W. Johnson '76 of the Washington Supreme Court; Judge Karen Seinfeld '77 of the Washington State Court of Appeals; and judicial clerk Brian Bodine '91 of the New Mexico Supreme Court. Gail Nakatani '75 is a judge on Hawaii's First Circuit Court, the highest-level trial court in Oahu. Robert Russell '75 is a member of the judiciary in Arapahoe County, Colorado. Maridel McQueen '85 is senior administrator of the courts for the State of Washington. In Seattle, Judith Hightower '83 serves on the Municipal Court, Darcy Goodman '75 on the District Court, and Deborah Fleck '76 on the King County Superior Court. And in Mason County, Washington, Victoria Meadows '83 has been appointed to serve as a judge on the county's Superior Court. She is one of the youngest judges in the state.

Among alumni/ae who have returned to the academy are Professor Thomas Galligan '81, Louisiana State University Law Center; Julie Lim '84, professor of legal research at City University of New York Law School; and Kate Federle '83, professor of law at Tulane University. Susan Dywer-Schick '86 is a member of the Legal Studies faculty at Pacific Lutheran University. Victor Archibong '80 teaches political science and legal administration at Greensboro College in North Carolina. And Catharyn Baird '74 is a professor of business law at Denver's Regis College.

They're our people and we're proud of them. With probable cause.
CURRICULUM

FIRST-YEAR REQUIREMENTS

The following courses, totalling 30 credits, are required in the first year.

The term in which these classes are taken in some instances depends on which enrollment option you choose (e.g., full-time, summer entry; full-time, fall entry; part-time, summer entry; etc.). When there is a choice, we note it by placing an asterisk in the When Scheduled column.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>When Scheduled</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Civil Procedure (2)</td>
<td>fall and spring (6)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contracts (2)</td>
<td>fall and spring (6)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Criminal Law (1)</td>
<td>*first summer (4)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Legal Writing (2)</td>
<td>fall and spring (3)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Property (2)</td>
<td>fall and spring (6)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Torts (2)</td>
<td>*fall and spring (5)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Civil Procedure
Pleading under the rules of civil procedure for U.S. District Courts and under state rules. Consideration of discovery and other pretrial mechanisms; jurisdiction and venue; summary judgment; parties and the dimensions of a dispute; impleader, interpleader, class actions, and intervention; res judicata and collateral estoppel; aspects of trial practice. Six credits. Two semesters.

Contracts
Enforceable agreements, including requirements for the formation of a contract; problems of interpretation; consideration and its equivalents; damages for breach; the statute of frauds; illegality; rights and liabilities of third parties arising from the contract itself or from assignment of contractual rights; and the delegation of contractual duties. Six credits. Two semesters.

Criminal Law
Substantive criminal law and elements of criminal responsibility. Topics include law of homicide and other crimes, and principles of justification and excuse, including the insanity defense. Four credits. One semester.

Legal Writing I:
Expository and Advisory Writing
Intensive, small-group instruction on how to communicate in writing. Focus on appropriate use of language, effective legal writing technique. Three credits. Two semesters.

Property
Law of real and personal property, emphasizing real estate. Consideration of creation and transfer of property interest; relationship between landlord and tenant; public and private controls of land use; common law estates and future interests. Six credits. Two semesters.

Torts
Nature, historical development, social and economic determinants, and consequences of the body of law defining noncontractual civil obligations by which the legal system shifts the economic burden of various injuries. Study of liability for physical harm on the basis of intentional tort, negligence, and strict liability; and liability for defamation and other relational harm. Five credits. One intensive summer or two semesters.

The Election Between
Full-time and Part-time Studies
If you are a full-time student, you must certify that you do not work more than 20 hours per week at gainful employment. Most part-time students, by contrast, hold full-time jobs. If you take first-year courses exclusively in the evening, you are automatically in that division for your first year. If you continue as a part-time student taking courses in the fall, spring, and summers thereafter, you will ordinarily graduate after the fall semester of your fourth year of studies.

Credit Requirements for Graduation
Required and elective courses to total 90 or more credits; students must have a 2.1 grade point average to graduate.

UPPERCLASS REQUIREMENTS

The following courses are required for graduation:

Constitutional Law I & II (Second year)
Evidence
Legal Writing II (Second year)
Professional Responsibility
One of the several Philosophical/Historical/Theoretical (P/H/T) courses offered (selected upperclass elective courses)

Constitutional Law I
Allocation and distribution of power within the federal system. Emphasis on appropriate allocation of the economic regulatory power and the police power. Three credits. One semester.

Constitutional Law II
Limits of government power in favor of individual autonomy on national and state levels.

At Puget Sound, we require our students to grapple with difficult legal issues, make sense of legal decisions, and apply these legal rules to actual situations. Our faculty do not accept rote or pat solutions. They call for in-depth, rigorous analysis of problems and the framework in which they occur.

Pictured here:
Professor Mark Reutlinger
A.B. University of California/Berkeley
First in Class
Phi Beta Kappa
J.D. University of California/Berkeley
Order of the Coif
Study of the clash of democratic values and individual autonomy. Three credits. One semester.

Evidence
Anglo-American rules of proof applicable to judicial trials, including presentation of evidence; examination and competency of witnesses; privilege; relevancy; demonstrative evidence; writings; the hearsay rule and its exceptions; the burden of producing evidence; presumptions; the burden of persuasion; and judicial notice. Four credits. One semester.

Legal Writing II:
Persuasive Writing and Oral Advocacy
Analysis, writing, and research emphasizing the lawyer's role as advocate. How to write and argue memoranda of law and appellate briefs; analyze the trial record; persuasively use language and style; present oral arguments in a style appropriate to trial and appellate courts. Three credits. One semester.

Philosophical/Historical/Theoretical (P/H/T) Course
Some upperclass elective courses will satisfy this requirement.

Professional Responsibility
Legal ethics, including lawyer-client relations, lawyer-public relations, and the lawyer's responsibility to the legal profession and the courts. Detailed coverage of the ABA Code of Professional Responsibility, cases and materials on professional responsibility, and important Washington law. Two credits. One semester.

RECOMMENDED UPPERCLASS COURSES
Administrative Law
Corporations
Individual Income Tax
Administrative Law, Corporations, Individual Income Tax, and Evidence (a course required for graduation) serve as prerequisites for a number of upperlevel courses. In planning your schedules for the second and third years, you will want to plan early to take prerequisite courses. See the individual course descriptions to determine whether a prerequisite is needed.

UPPERCLASS ELECTIVE COURSES
Administrative Law
Powers and procedures of administrative agencies. Consideration of procedural problems concerning exercise of power by agencies and problems connected with administrative processes not subject to effective legislative or judicial supervision.

Administrative Law and Political Theory
Constitutional limitations on the power of the executive to infringe on the life, liberty, and property of individuals, including the requirement of due process. The extent to which Congress may use the court system to control administrative and executive operations of government, including separation of powers, and limits of the adjudicative process. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Admiralty
Federal and state jurisdiction and other problems of admiralty and maritime law. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Agency and Partnership
Legal rules governing principal and agent. Study of this relationship through various business association forms, with emphasis on the emerging doctrine of enterprise liability.

Antitrust Law
History of public policies and significant legal principles developed in the enforcement of the Sherman Act and supplementary antitrust legislation designed to maintain and improve the competitive structure of the American economy.

Bankruptcy
Creditors' rights, including a study of typical state procedures for the enforcement of claims and exemptions; the developing body of common law; statutory and constitutional limitations; remedies affording protection to debtors.

Chinese Law
A comparative law approach to examining the development of legal discourse in China. Examining characteristic Chinese attitudes toward the law, and tracing the influence of these attitudes on the historical evolution of the Chinese legal system. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Clinical Program: Law Practice Clinic
Family law and criminal misdemeanor practice by students eligible under Rule 9 with clinical law professors and members of the Bar. Students take charge of all steps from interviewing clients through litigation.

Prerequisites: Evidence, Legal Writing II.

Commercial Transactions:
Commercial Paper
Commercial paper (the law of payment devices, including notes, checks, and electronic fund transfers) and methodology of legal analysis under the Uniform Commercial Code.

"I realized early in my first year that you reach a plateau while studying. You feel confident enough to enter a classroom discussion but uncertain of the 'exact law' to be applied. I thus resolved to study only to the point of confident perplexity, not presumption."

Amanda Laveson '92
B.A. With Honors
Washington University/
St. Louis
Moot Court Board
Assistant Attorney General
Division of Labor & Industry
Seattle
Commercial Transactions:
Sales and Secured Transactions
Problems created by movement of goods from manufacturer to consumer, including risk of loss, warranties, and sales remedies under the Uniform Commercial Code. The manner in which parties create interests in personal property to secure payment of a debt, and the consequences of such an interest. Creating and perfecting security interests, priorities among secured parties, and existing remedies in the event of default or improper seizure. Consideration of these issues under Articles 8 and 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Community Property
Relationship necessary for creation of community property, classification of property as community or separate, management and control of community assets, rights of creditors to reach community and separate property, and disposition of property upon dissolution of the community.

Conflicts of Laws
Problems created for the lawyer by the 50 or more law-making jurisdictions within the U.S. Study of choice of the applicable law; recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments; judicial (service) jurisdiction.

Corporations
Problems arising out of the creation, organization, and operation of the business corporation. Consideration is given to the financial problems of corporations.

Criminal Law and Procedure: The Investigatory Phase
Legal restraints on police practices during the investigatory phase of a criminal proceeding.

Criminal Law and Procedure: The Adjudicatory Phase
Processes of determining the guilt or innocence of a criminal suspect and related issues.

Criminal Law and Procedure: Sentencing
Dispositional phase of the criminal justice system, including the sentencing process and dispositional alternatives.

Drafting Labs
Instruction and practice in legal drafting with faculty members, followed by work in small groups with a practicing attorney; students draft documents in an area of the law they are studying in other courses.

Employment Discrimination
Legal prohibitions against employment discrimination based on one's race, color, religion, sex, origin, age, or physical ability. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Employment Law
Statutory and tort law governing the workplace, focusing on the right to a job (wrongful discharge and whistleblower protection); to dignity (emotional distress, privacy invasion, defamation); and to health and safety (occupational safety and health and workers' compensation).

Environmental Law
Judicial, legislative, and administrative approaches to regulating use of natural resources and protecting environmental quality.

Environmental Law: Land Use Planning
A study of the public land use planning process and such implementation techniques as zoning, subdivision regulation, shoreline management, and environmental impact analysis. Attention to the procedure and substance of legal controls, administrative discretion and legal accountability, coordination of land use policies and emerging methods of land use control. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Environmental Law: NEPA/SEPA
Common law precedents for environmental protection and the workings of the national and state environmental policy acts, with special attention to the role of the courts in reviewing agency decisions. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Environmental Law: Oil, Gas, and Mining
Public laws and private legal arrangements governing the availability of mineral resources.

Environmental Law: Pollution Regulation
Selected topics of air, water, and toxic pollution regulation. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Externship Program
Part- or full-time supervised, school-approved legal work with selected courts and public agencies. Prerequisite: Evidence.

Family Law
The role of law, its objectives, and the forces shaping it in relation to the creation, regulation, and dissolution of the family.

Federal Courts
The jurisdiction and functioning of the federal courts, distribution of authority between federal and state courts, roles of federal and state law in the federal system, and preparation of federal court proceedings.

Gender and Justice
A seminar to explore roots and ramifications of gender bias, with economic, social, and historical forces examined; a wide range of teaching methods used to explore issues of gender in fiction and nonfiction literature, critiques, videotapes, statistical reports, cases, law reviews, and legal documents. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Health Law
Survey of the structure, organization and financing of health care delivery in the U.S.; related legal and political problems; other issues of relevance to lawyers.

Immigration Law
U.S. law on immigration, naturalization, and deportation as set forth in statutes, administrative regulations and decisions, and court decisions. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Independent Study
A student may pursue his/her research interest and receive academic credit on completion of a satisfactory paper under the supervision of a faculty member.

Insurance Law
Basic law of insurance.

Intellectual Properties:
Copyright, Patent, Trademark
Constitutional and philosophical justification for protecting intangible or intellectual properties.

International Business Transactions
Legal and quasi-legal questions concerning international trade and investment, emphasizing problems relating to governmental regulation of such activity.

International Law
Nature and function of law in the international system. Structure and methods of the international law-making system and the allocation of competence within that system.

International Law of Human Rights

Jurisprudence
Major theoretical and philosophical positions regarding the role of law and legal reasoning in a modern society. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Juvenile Law
State intervention in the lives of children, historical and sociological background, and status of the child in the legal system.

Labor Law: Private Sector
Statutory law relating to union organization; establishment of the bargaining relationship, negotiation of the collective bargaining agreement, and exertion of primary and secondary economic pressures. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Labor Law: Public Sector
Employment rights in federal, state and local government, including constitutional limitations on governmental employers. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

Law and Economics
Microeconomic principles applied to the solution of legal problems; analysis of legal problems in the areas of contracts, torts, and property from an economics perspective; taught jointly by law faculty and economics department faculty; research papers prepared jointly by law students and upper division economics students. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Law and Language
Ways in which analysis of linguistic and stylistic approaches to the English language shape the law and the uses to which it is put. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Law and Medicine
Legal/ethical problems presented by modern biomedical technology. Legal issues of medical malpractice.

Law and Psychiatry
Relationship between law and psychiatry.

Law Review Candidates
Two credits in year of candidacy on certification by the editor-in-chief and the faculty advisor.

Law Review Members
Four credits in the third year on certification by the editor-in-chief and the faculty advisor.

Legal History: American
General survey of seminal issues in American legal history. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Legislation and the Legal Process
Legal reasoning, emphasizing the judicial decision-making process and the law’s conflicting goals of stability and responsiveness to social change. Satisfies P/H/T requirement.

Moot Court: Competitions
Eight competitions involving mock trial and appellate advocacy skills. Most require preparation of a written brief and oral argument on an issue of law, before experts in that area of law, in competitions against law schools on regional, national, and international levels.
In our era, criticism of legal writing is so common it is difficult to decide which derision to quote. A title of a recent law review article captures the feeling of many modern critics: Legal Writing: An Obstruction to Justice.

Pictured here: Professor Chris Rideout Associate Director of the Legal Writing Program Editor of the journal Legal Writing

Real Estate Transactions: Basic
Basics of real property security. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Real Estate Transactions: Advanced
Modern real estate development emphasizing transactional analysis. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Remedies
Various legal and equitable remedies provided in tort, contract, and property law when civil liability is imposed on a litigant.

Securities Regulation

Street Law
Teaching of law to high school students, including introduction to law, criminal law, family law, consumer law, individual rights.

Substantive Courses — Clinical Component
Taken in conjunction with a substantive course, this clinical component allows students under faculty supervision to represent clients in the legal area that is the subject of the course. Evidence and Rule 9 eligibility preferred. Components to Law and Psychiatry, and Immigration Law are planned.

Taxation: Business Planning
Corporations, partnerships, and federal taxation in the context of business planning and counseling. Prerequisites: Corporations, Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Taxation: Estate Planning
Techniques for transfer of property by gift or devise, and estate, gift, and income tax consequences. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Taxation: Federal Gift and Estate Taxation
Operation and use of federal tax provisions applicable to inter vivos and testamentary dispositions of property, emphasizing federal estate and gift taxation. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Taxation: Federal Income Taxation of Corporations and Shareholders
Basic federal income tax consequences to a corporation and its shareholders. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals.

Taxation: Federal Income Taxation of Individuals
Fundamentals of federal income taxation.
UPPERCLASS SEMINARS AND SPECIAL COURSES
In addition to the regularly scheduled courses, the School of Law offers an expanding number of advanced courses and seminars with limited enrollment. Among them:
- Advanced Evidence Seminar
- Advanced Legal Research
- Advanced Writing Seminar
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- American Constitutional History
- Appellate Advocacy
- Banking and Law
- Comparative Law
- Constitutional Interpretation Seminar
- Constitutional Law: Selected Problems
- Constitutional Law: State Constitutional Law Seminar
- Consumer Protection
- Corporate Finance
- Corporations Seminar
- Criminal Appellate Seminar
- Criminal Procedure Lab
- Drafting Legal Documents
- Electronic Mass Communications Theory and the First Amendment
- Employee Benefits: Qualified and Non-Qualified Profit Sharing Plans
- Environmental Law: Advanced
- Environmental Law: Toxics
- Environmental Law: Water Law
- Evidence Lab
- Federal Indian Law
- Intellectual Property
- Labor Law Seminar: Bargaining
- Law and Religion
- Law and Society
- Legal History: English
- Legislative Seminar
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Personal Liberties and the Political Process
- Products Liability
- State and Local Government
- Trusts and Estates: Administration
- White Collar Crime Seminar

THE LAW LIBRARY
The Puget Sound Law Library is our students’ key to the labyrinth of the law. In it are housed nearly 300,000 volumes which contain statutes, cases, opinions, treatises, and briefs from international, federal, state, and local jurisdictions. The collection contains not only books and periodicals, but also videotapes, video and optical discs, and a sophisticated range of computerized database services. Ranked among the top law libraries in the West, the Puget Sound Law Library offers students superb resources for legal research:
- The newest and fastest growing in Washington, it is the second largest law school library in the Pacific Northwest. By a substantial margin, it represents the largest private collection in the region.
- Known nationally as a leader in computerized legal research, the library was the first in the Northwest to install — over a decade ago — both LEXIS and WESTLAW terminals. Today, as then, the library offers students and faculty the latest in computer technology and related legal information delivery systems.
- Open daily from 7 a.m. to midnight, our library features a state-of-the-art computer lab exclusively for students with IBM-compatible microcomputers and the latest in word-processing software. Conversions for 22 word-processing programs and from Macintosh computers allow students to use the library’s laser printers for legal writing assignments, research papers, and related coursework. Formal training in computer-assisted legal research is provided for all students.
- Located throughout the 60,000-square-foot facility are study carrels and tables for over 600 students and several meeting rooms for study groups.
- The 18-member professional staff, which includes five librarians who hold J.D. degrees, provides regular and reliable counsel to students in the use of library resources.
- An important illustration of the Law School’s ongoing commitment to a high quality research and reference facility is the fact that, for each $7 in the institution’s operating budget, $1 is devoted to the law library.

Prospective students wishing a tour of the Puget Sound Law Library may contact the Office of Admission at 206-591-2252 or a member of the library professional staff at 206-591-2973.
chelle Radosevich '94, a 9 honors graduate of quartette University, combined her first year law studies with a time job as Director Governmental Affairs the Washington State Lawyers Association. this writing she is managing the campaign of Ladenburg for the Washington State Attorney General. "I doubt ill radically change ears once I secure my v degree," the one-time member of the Wisconsin Senate tells us, "but ill bring new and useful owledge to my work in political arena.

Pearl Platt '94 came to Puget Sound after attending the University of Redlands on a National Merit Scholarship and graduating in 1991 with Phi Beta Kappa honors. Active in law school affairs from her first day on campus, Pearl serves as editor of Women's Voice, the newsletter of the Women's Law Caucus. She was employed last summer at Evergreen Legal Services.

Denise Jording '93 began legal studies at Puget Sound after serving as Continuing Legal Education Coordinator for the Seattle-King County Bar Association. A cum laude graduate of Washington State University, where she served as ASWSU Secretary, Denise brings to Puget Sound an impressive academic and community service record, as well as an energetic commitment "to become the best lawyer I can be." She is Vice Chair of the Moot Court Board and was a 1992 summer intern at the King County Prosecutor's office in Seattle.

In any business endeavor, one should keep as many options open as possible. Attending law school can do just that. A legal education is an exciting, challenging 'door opener' that can lead to the broadest possible array of career options.

Stuart Rolfe '78 Pictured at right Chairman and CEO of the Space Needle Corporation Executive Vice President of Howard S. Wright & Company B.A. Dartmouth College Member of the Law School Board of Visitors
try to analyze course material in the context of the world of the competent practicing attorney – a world which requires combining case analysis skills with judgment, a sense of tactics, imagination, discipline, and an ethical perspective."

Professor David Boerner
Pictured at left
Author of the book

staff. She holds responsibility for Career Services and Alumni/ae Affairs and coordinates the Externship Program. Active in professional organizations, she is a past president of the Pacific Northwest Association of College Admission Counselors and past chair of the National Association of College Admission Counselors Presidents Council. She is a member of the National Association for Law Placement and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

James Beaver
Professor of Law
Admiralty, conflict of laws, evidence

Marilyn Berger
Professor of Law
Civil procedure, trial and practice skills
B.S. Cornell University 1965. J.D. University of California/Berkeley 1970. Honors Moot Court Program 1969-70. Member New York and California State Bars. As an attorney with legal services programs, Professor Berger represented indigent clients in major state and federal court litigation. She was awarded a two-year Reginald Heber Smith Community Lawyer Fellowship. From 1973-76 she was senior attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Marin County, California. Later, she joined the San Francisco firm of Saltzman and Johnson. She was a visiting professor of law at South Bank Polytechnic, London, and a scholar-in-residence at King’s College, University of London, in 1981-82. During 1988-89, she was a visiting professor of law at Kyoto University in Japan, and a research fellow at the Kyoto Comparative Law Center. She is co-author with John Mitchell and Ron Clark of the casebooks Pretrial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis, and Strategy, and Trial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis, and Strategy, published in 1988 and 1989 by Little, Brown & Co.

David Boerner
Associate Professor of Law
Administrative law, criminal law, legal ethics
B.S. University of Illinois 1962. LL.B. University of Illinois School of Law 1963. After graduation Professor Boerner was in private practice in Seattle. From 1965-67 he served as assistant U.S. attorney for the Western District of Washington. As an assistant attorney general for the State of Washington from 1969-70, Boerner helped revise the state criminal code. From 1971-81 he was chief criminal deputy for the King County (Seattle) prosecuting attorney. He has served as chair of the Rules of Professional Conduct Committee of the Washington State Bar Association (1982-1988) and serves on the Washington Supreme Court’s Jury Instruction Committee. Professor Boerner is author of the book, Sentencing in Washington: A Legal Analysis of the Sentencing Reform Act of 1981.

James E. Bond
Dean, Professor of Law
Constitutional law, criminal law and procedure, international law, jurisprudence, legal method, professional responsibility
A.B. Wabash College 1964. J.D. Harvard University 1967. LL.M. University of Virginia 1971. S.J.D. University of Virginia 1972. Phi Beta Kappa, Order of the Coif, Order of the Barristers. Dean Bond has published four books: The Rules of Riot: International Conflict and the Law of War (Princeton Press 1974), Plea Bargaining and Guilty Pleas (Clark-Boardman 1975, supplement 1978; second edition 1982). The Art of Judging (1987), and James Clark McReynolds: I Dissent (1992). In addition, he is author of more than a score of legal articles which have been published in the William and Mary, Washington & Lee, and Wake Forest law reviews, among others, and of a series of book reviews which have appeared in other major law reviews in the country. Dean Bond serves on the Board of Advisors for the National Legal Center for the Public Interest and the Washington Legal Foundation; on the Washington Advisory Committee for the U.S. Civil Rights Commission; and on the Board of Editors for Benchmark. He has taught at the Judge Advocate General’s School, Washington & Lee, and Wake Forest, and in CLEO Institutes at the Universities of South Carolina and Richmond.

Melinda J. Branscomb
Assistant Professor of Law
Employment discrimination, employment law, labor law, torts
B.A. cum laude Vanderbilt University 1972. Phi Kappa Phi. J.D. University of Tennessee School of Law 1980 (first in class). Chancellor’s Citation for Extraordinary Academic Achievement; Order of the Coif; assistant editor Tennessee Law Review; Moot Court Board, National Moot Court Team (first place winners, Southeastern Region). Admitted to practice Tennessee; U.S. Courts of Appeals, Fifth, Sixth, and Eleventh Circuits. After law school, Professor Branscomb clerked for Chief Justice Brock of the Tennessee Supreme Court and served as Assistant Tennessee Attorney General, authoring numerous judicial opinions. From 1983 until 1989, she was an attorney in the Legal Department of the International Headquarters of the United Paperworkers Union based in Nashville. In that capacity she practiced labor and employment law in state and federal courts throughout the United States and Canada, and conducted labor law classes for representatives of labor and management. She is also a mediator and member of the Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution. Before her career in law, she served as Vanderbilt University’s Associate Director of Undergraduate Admission and was employed in the Vanderbilt-in-France program.

Douglas Branson
Professor of Law
Banking law, comparative law, corporate finance, corporations, mergers and acquisitions, securities regulation
B.A. cum laude University of Notre Dame
1965. J.D. cum laude Northwestern University 1970. LL.M. University of Virginia 1974. Admitted to practice Ohio, Illinois, Washington, and various federal courts. Member American Law Institute and American Bar Association, Corporation, Banking, and Business Law Section. From 1965-67 Professor Branson served in the U.S. Navy. After his discharge, he was in private practice with the Chicago firm of Hubachek, Kelly, Rauch & Kirby. He has taught law at the University of Oregon; Arizona State University; the University of East Anglia, Norwich, England; Cornell University; Kings College, University of London; University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand; and Victoria University, Wellington, New Zealand. Professor Branson is the author of more than 20 articles which have appeared in the Northwestern, Cornell, Vanderbilt, Tulane, Maryland, Minnesota, Fordham, Oregon, Emory, UCLA-Alaska, Duke-Alaska, and other law reviews. He lectures widely to bar association groups in the Pacific Northwest and maintains an active consulting practice, all in the corporate-securities field. During spring term 1993, he will teach at the University of Alabama Law School as the Charles Tweedy Distinguished Professor.

Donald Carmichael

Academic Chair

Professor of Law

Environmental law, natural resources law, real property

A.B. Davidson College 1958. LL.B. cum laude University of Louisville 1963. LL.M. University of Wisconsin 1964. Admitted to practice Kentucky and Wisconsin. Professor Carmichael entered private practice in Wisconsin in 1964. Three years later he became a Ford Foundation Fellow at the University of Wisconsin, where he also was a lecturer. From 1968-78 he served as professor of law at the University of Colorado. In 1977-78 he joined the faculty of the University of Puget Sound School of Law as a visiting professor and became a member of the career faculty in 1978. Professor Carmichael is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund and the Litigation Board of the Washington Environmental Council.

Eric A. Chiappinelli

Associate Professor of Law

American legal historiography, corporations, mergers and acquisitions, securities regulation

B.A. cum laude Claremont Men’s College 1975. J.D. Columbia University School of Law 1978. Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. Admitted to practice California. Professor Chiappinelli was law clerk to the Honorable Malcolm M. Lucas from 1978-80 when Judge Lucas was serving as a federal district court judge for the Central District of California. From 1984-85 he again clerked for Justice Lucas, who was then Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California. Professor Chiappinelli has been an associate with the Los Angeles law firms of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue, and Munger, Tolles & Rickershaar. Past chair of the Committee on the History of the Law, State Bar of California, he is a member of the American Bar Association and the American Society for Legal History.

Annette Clark

Assistant Professor of Law

Civil procedure, law and medicine, remedies

B.S. summa cum laude Washington State University 1981. Phi Beta Kappa. M.D. With Honors University of Washington School of Medicine 1985. J.D. cum laude University of Puget Sound School of Law 1989. After graduating from medical school, Professor Clark participated in a University of Washington research project studying whether education would reduce tobacco use among fifth and sixth graders. Since 1985 she has worked as a medical consultant for several area law firms, concentrating primarily in medical malpractice, with a secondary interest in third-party liability and personal injury. In 1988 she served as student law clerk for the Honorable Eugene Wright, Senior Judge of the Federal Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit.

Sidney DeLong

Associate Professor of Law

Commercial law, contracts

B.A. Vanderbilt University 1969. J.D. Yale Law School 1974. Chairman, Yale Moot Court; winner, Harlan Fiske Stone Prize for Appellate Competition; winner, Sutherland Cup Moot Court Competition. Admitted to practice Colorado, U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. Prior to joining the Puget Sound faculty in 1986, Professor DeLong was associated with the Denver firm of Holmes &

---

Excerpt from a recent 1L student letter to Dean Jim Bond:

“A word about my classroom experience at the law school so far: I’m impressed. Downright dazzled, in fact.”

---

“I have become intrigued with subjects I never thought would interest me because of the consistently high quality of teaching—and the enthusiasm for their subject areas my professors possess.”

Gail Pruitt ’94

B.A. in Political Economy

The Evergreen State College

Merit Scholar At Entry

Former reporter for The Hartford Courant,

Connecticut's largest daily newspaper.”
This approach makes that Student Associate able emphasizes cooperative, school a much more enjoyable experience, and it helps build relationships among students.

Beverly Van Soelen '93

University of Michigan Law School Assistant Dean

B.A. Yale University 1976. J.D. University of Pennsylvania Law School 1979. Admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania. From 1985 until 1991, Dean Deming served as assistant dean for admissions and student affairs at Temple University School of Law. From 1982-1984, she was Temple Law School's assistant director of admissions, then director of admissions. Earlier, she was an associate with the Philadelphia firm of Ballard, Spahr, Andrews & Ingersoll. A member of the Board of Directors of the Law School Admissions Council and the Association of American Law Schools, she recently chaired the AALS's Executive Committee on Prelegal Education & Admission to Law School. At the Law School she holds responsibility for the coordination of student registration and records, academic counseling, implementation of student academic policies, and academic advising for first-year students. She also designs institutional research projects.

David Engdahl

Professor of Law

Constitutional law

A.B. University of Kansas 1961. L.L.B. University of Kansas Law School 1964. J.S.D. University of Michigan Law School 1969. Admitted to practice Michigan and Colorado, U.S. Supreme Court, and several Federal Circuit and District Courts. From 1966-75, Professor Engdahl taught at the University of Colorado School of Law. He has taught as a visiting law professor at the University of Michigan, Cleveland State University, and the University of Denver. From 1975-77 he was assistant attorney general and chief of the Education Unit of the Colorado Department of Law, and then was in private practice in Denver until joining the faculty in 1981. Professor Engdahl has been general counsel to the Western Interstate Energy Board, and litigation counsel to the Western Governors’ Policy Office and to several states. Co-counsel for the civil rights plaintiffs in the Kent State Cases, he is the author of Constitutional Federalism in a Nutshell (West Publishing Co., 1987).

Sheldon Frankel

Professor of Law

Agency and partnership, business planning, corporations, estate planning, federal taxation, pension planning

B.A. University of Connecticut 1961. J.D. Boston University 1964. L.L.M. Boston University 1968. Admitted to practice Massachusetts, Connecticut, Washington, U.S. Tax Court, and other federal courts. Prior to joining the faculty in 1974, Professor Frankel practiced law in Boston. He was assistant editor-in-chief of the American Trial Lawyers Association Newsletter from 1966-72, while he also taught legal writing at Boston University and business law at Bentley College of Accounting and Finance in Waltham, Massachusetts. In 1972 he joined the faculty of Ohio Northern University College of Law as an associate professor, where he taught until coming to Puget Sound. Professor Frankel has published in the Journal of the American Trial Lawyers Association, served as tax editor of Trial Magazine, and participated in CLE and CPA programs in the tax, business, and family law areas. An active member of the Section on Taxation of the Washington State Bar Association, he serves on its Newsletter Committee.

Jennifer Freimund

Executive Director

Admission and Financial Aid

B.A. The College of William and Mary 1981. Prior to joining the Law School administrative staff in 1985, Freimund directed the Tacoma-Pierce County YWCA Women’s Resource Center, an employment and training program for women. She began an innovative, nontraditional employment program for women and wrote numerous grants to fund services. After moving to the Law School, she was the associate director of admission for three years. She then became the director of the annual fund for the University of Puget Sound with fundraising responsibilities for the undergraduate school, athletics department, and the Law School. In 1989 she returned to the Law School. Active in the community, she is immediate past president of the Board of Directors of the YWCA of Tacoma-Pierce County.

"When I look back on my law school days, I will always appreciate the fact that our professors looked up with us, not down at us."

Third-year student comment on a blind exit survey
Our goal as faculty is to develop graduates who will love to deal with legal issues in whatever contexts they may encounter them after graduation, and who will appreciate their education long after leaving the Law School.”

Professor Thomas Holdych
B.A. summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa
Rockford College
J.D. With Honors
University of Illinois
Editor-In-Chief
University of Illinois Law Forum

Thomas Holdych
Professor of Law
Commercial law, contracts
B.A. summa cum laude Rockford College 1966, Phi Beta Kappa. J.D. With Honors University of Illinois 1970. Order of the Coif. Editor-in-chief University of Illinois Law Forum. Admitted to practice California. After graduation, Professor Holdych served as law clerk to Chief Justice Donald R. Wright of the California Supreme Court. He was an associate in the firm of O’Melveny and Meyers, Los Angeles, from 1970-72. Since then, he has been a member of the Puget Sound Law School faculty. Professor Holdych has written in the areas of commercial law, consumer protection, and tort liability.

Betsy Hollingsworth
Clinical Professor of Law
Director of Law Practice Clinic
Clinical teaching, consumer protection, professional responsibility
B.A. cum laude Occidental College 1970. J.D. University of Washington 1975. Admitted to practice Washington. Before joining the faculty, Professor Hollingsworth was the chief of the Consumer Protection Section of the Washington Attorney General’s Office. She has also worked in private practice and as a deputy prosecuting attorney in the Criminal, Juvenile, and Fraud Divisions of the King County (Seattle) Prosecutor’s Office.

John La Fond
Professor of Law
Criminal law, criminal procedure, law and psychiatry, professional responsibility
B.A. cum laude Yale University 1965. J.D. Yale Law School 1968. Admitted to practice New York. Member American Bar Association and New York State Bar. From 1969-71 Professor La Fond served in the U.S. Army as an attorney in extensive trial work and as clerk for Judge Reid W. Kennedy, Jr., for the trial of the United States v. Lt. William L. Calley. From 1971-73 he practiced corporate law with the firm of Debevoise & Plimpton in New York City. He is co-author of Back to the Asylum: The Future of Mental Health Law and Policy in the United States, published in 1992 by Oxford University Press. He has published numerous law review articles in his areas of teaching interest. Professor La Fond has also presented papers at many professional meetings, including those of the American Psychological Association, the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law, the International Congress on Law and Mental Health, the Association of American Law Schools, the Law and Society Association, and the American College of Forensic Psychiatry. He has served as a legal consultant to the National Institute of Mental Health on a major research project on involuntary civil commitment of the mentally ill and another on research methods to determine if mental health services for the seriously ill improve public safety.

Raven Lidman
Clinical Professor of Law
Clinical teaching, family law
B.A. Cornell University 1967. J.D. University of Puget Sound School of Law 1977. Admitted to practice Washington State and Federal District Court, Western Washington. Before joining the faculty in 1987, Professor Lidman was a staff attorney and managing attorney in the Olympia office of Puget Sound Legal Assistance Foundation. She was in private practice, as well, in a small Olympia firm.

Paula Lustbader
Director of Academic Resource Center
B.S. cum laude Southern Oregon State College 1982. J.D. cum laude University of Puget Sound School of Law 1988. Prior to law school, Lustbader worked as a pre-sentence investigator for the Oregon State Corrections Division and founded the Project Toward Effective Criminal Treatment Systems. In law school, she helped develop a comprehensive Academic Resource Program, which offers assistance to specially admitted law students, and expanded the Academic Resource Center which she now directs. Admitted to the bar in Washington, she has designed and taught a bar examination preparation course. She developed and taught the faculty orientation session for the Native Law Centre 1990 summer program at the University of Saskatchewan. She was a presenter at the last three national Legal Writing Conferences, and she helped develop and taught at the 1992 Academic Assistance Workshop at the University of Colorado School of Law.
John Mitchell
Clinical Associate Professor
Clinical teaching, program consultant
B.A. University of Wisconsin/Madison 1967, top 3 percent.
Editor, Stanford Law Review. Professor Mitchell began litigation practice in Palo Alto, California, where he practiced as a trial attorney for 10 years. A consultant to public and private attorneys on trial, motion, and appellate strategies, he has been a visiting professor at the University of California at Berkeley. Consultant in training for Perkins Coie, where he has served as director of legal training, he is co-author with Marilyn Berger and Ron Clark of the casebooks Pretrial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis, and Strategy, and Trial Advocacy: Planning, Analysis and Strategy, published by Little, Brown & Co. He has authored articles for Constitutional Commentary, the Journal of Legal Education, and the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics, among others, on topics ranging from professional responsibility to the application of learning theory in the training of law students.

George Nock
Professor of Law
Administrative law, criminal law, criminal procedure, evidence, law and religion, professional responsibility, property
Order of the Coif; editor-in-chief, Hastings Law Journal. From 1966-72, Professor Nock was a deputy attorney general for the State of California. In that capacity, he represented the state in criminal appeals and state correctional officers in post-conviction relief actions and Civil Rights Act suits. He practiced before California courts at all levels, and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. From 1972-74, he served as a senior deputy district attorney of Marin County, California, heading the Appeals and Law & Motion Division of the District Attorney’s Office. Professor Nock’s publications include contributions to the University of Puget Sound Law Review, Hastings Law Journal, Brigham Young University Law Review, Connecticut Law Review, and Criminal Law Bulletin.

Laurel Currie Oates
Director, Legal Writing Program
Language and the law, legal writing

William Oltman
Professor of Law
Community property, estate planning and taxation, property, trusts and estates
B.A. University of Wisconsin 1966. J.D. cum laude University of Michigan School of Law 1969.
Professor Oltman held various teaching positions before joining the Puget Sound Law School faculty in 1974. In 1969-70 he was an instructor at the Indianapolis Law School in the areas of legal writing, advocacy, corporations, property, and criminal law. In 1970-71 he taught contracts and legal systems at Victoria University in Wellington, New Zealand. Professor Oltman returned to the United States and practiced law with the Seattle firm of Ashley, Foster, Pepper and Riviera. He is co-author of Washington Law of Wills and Intestate Succession, with Professor Mark Reutlinger.

Mark Reutlinger
Professor of Law
Evidence, products liability, torts, trusts and estates
A.B. University of California/Berkeley 1965. Gold Medalist (first in class), Phi Beta Kappa, Regents Scholar. J.D. University of California/ Berkeley 1968. Order of the Coif; note and comment editor, Law Review. Member American Law Institute. Professor Reutlinger joined the Law School faculty in 1978. He previously taught at the law schools of the University of San Francisco (1977-78) and the University of British Columbia (1974-75; 1969-71). He was in private law practice in Albany, California, and with the San Francisco law firm of Morrison & Foerster. Professor Reutlinger served as law clerk to Justice Stanley Mosk, California
Supreme Court. Major publications include Washington Law of Wills and Intestate Succession (with Professor William Oltman), several case books, contributions to the book, The Law of Politics, and numerous law review articles in the California Law Review and Hastings Law Journal, among others. He was a visiting professor of law at the Hastings College of Law during 1987-88, and is a member of the task force revising Washington’s probate law.

J. Christopher Rideout
Associate Director, Legal Writing Program
Associate Professor of English
Language and the law, legal writing
B.A. University of Puget Sound 1972. M.A. University of Washington 1977. Ph.D. University of Washington 1982. While in graduate school, Professor Rideout taught writing at the University of Washington from 1973-77. In 1977 he was named to the faculty in the University of Puget Sound’s English Department. From 1981-84 he co-directed a regional writing project funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities. He also began teaching legal writing at the Law School in 1981. Professor Rideout is chair of the Board of Directors of the Legal Writing Institute and is editor of the journal Legal Writing. He holds a joint appointment with the Law School and the undergraduate program.

Wallace Rudolph
Professor of Law
Administrative law, antitrust, constitutional law, legislation
B.A. University of Chicago 1950. J.D. University of Chicago 1953. Admitted to practice in Illinois, Nebraska, Washington, U.S. Supreme Court. Professor Rudolph was an instructor at the University of Chicago Law School in 1957-58 before joining the faculty of the University of Nebraska College of Law in 1963. He served as dean of the University of Puget Sound School of Law from 1976-80. Professor Rudolph is a member of the National Commission on Uniform State Laws and chairman of the committee drafting the Uniform Corrections Act. He holds membership on the Law Revision Commission and the Executive Committee of the Section on Legislation, Association of American Law Schools. Professor Rudolph is a member of numerous professional groups, including the American Law Institute and the American Bar Association, and is a past judge for the Court of Industrial Relations in Nebraska. His articles have been published in law reviews of the University of Chicago, University of Nebraska, Southwestern, and the University of Puget Sound, among others.

Richard Settle
Professor of Law
Land use and environmental law, property, torts
B.A. magna cum laude University of Washington 1964. Phi Beta Kappa. J.D. University of Washington 1967. Prior to the establishment of the Law School, Professor Settle taught law-related courses as a member of the faculty of the School of Business Administration and Department of Sociology at the University of Puget Sound. Since 1986 he has been Of Counsel to the Seattle firm of Foster Pepper & Shefelman. He has been on the Law School faculty since its inception in 1972. A frequent speaker in CLE and other professional and lay programs on land use and environmental law, he was co-editor of the Environmental-Land Use Law Newsletter, Washington State Bar Association, from 1978-84, and chair of the Environmental and Land Use Section, 1983-84. He is on the editorial advisory board of Northwest Land Use Review and is the author of numerous articles and two books, Washington Land Use and Environmental Law and Practice (1983) and The Washington State Environmental Policy Act: A Legal and Policy Analysis (1987, Supp. 1992).

Julie Shapiro
Assistant Professor of Law
Civil procedure, family law
B.A. Wesleyan University 1977. J.D. magna cum laude University of Pennsylvania 1982. Associate editor University of Pennsylvania Law Review 1980-82. Order of the Coif. Admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and U.S. Supreme Court. Professor Shapiro has served as a sole practitioner with emphasis on civil and constitutional rights, AIDS discrimination, and police misconduct, with experience at both trial and appellate levels. She has been a partner in a small civil rights law firm with emphasis on police misconduct, constitutional and civil rights, civil RICO litigation, and criminal defense. She served a clerkship... with The Honorable Joseph S. Lord. During 1989 and 1990 she taught appellate advocacy at the University of Pennsylvania.

David Skover

Professor of Law

Civil procedure, conflict of laws, constitutional law, electronic mass communications and law, federal courts

Anita Steele

Director of Law Library, Professor of Law

B.A. Radcliffe College 1948, J.D. University of Virginia Law School 1971, Virginia Journal of International Law. M.L.L. University of Washington 1972. Graduate work at Columbia University; librarian intern at Harvard Law Library. Member American Association of Law Librarians and International Association of Law Librarians. Professor Steele has served as Law School representative to the University Senate and as faculty advisor to the Women’s Law Caucus. She has published in the Law Library Journal and the University of Puget Sound Law Review. She has directed development of the Law School Library from its inception. Professor Steele is a member of several editorial advisory boards and the Seattle/King County Bar Association Law Library Task Force. She is active in promoting library and law school technology, as well as in providing computer-assisted legal instruction. She is listed in the current edition of Who’s Who in the West and Who’s Who of American Women.

Norton L. Steuben

Visiting Professor of Law

Natural resources taxation

B.A. University of Michigan 1958. J.D. With Distinction University of Michigan Law School 1961. Admitted to practice in New York and Colorado. Order of the Coif; Barristers Society; Presidential Teaching Scholar. Professor Steuben was a partner with the Buffalo, New York firm of Hodgson, Russ, Andrews, Woods & Goodyear. He has served on the law faculties of State University of New York/Buffalo and University of Colorado, where he has been a professor since 1974. He is also Of Counsel to the Denver firm of Ireland, Stapleton, Pryor & Pascoe, P.C.

John Strait

Associate Professor of Law

Criminal law, professional responsibility

B.A. University of California/Davis 1966. J.D. Yale Law School 1969. Admitted to practice U.S. Supreme Court; the U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit; the Federal District Courts of Northern California, Washington, D.C., Western Washington, and Oregon. He is a member of the California, Oregon, and Washington State Bars. Professor Strait is Of Counsel to the Seattle firm of MacDonald, Hoague & Bayless. He consults and lectures nationally in the fields of civil and criminal trial advocacy, legal and judicial ethics, and legal malpractice. Professor Strait has also served on numerous committees such as the Washington State Bar Association’s Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee and the King County Bar Association Campaign Ethics Committee.

Kellye Y. Testy

Assistant Professor of Law

Commercial law, contracts

B.A. Indiana University 1982. J.D. summa cum laude Indiana University School of Law 1991, top 1 percent. Order of the Coif; John H. Edwards Fellow; Indiana University Chancellor’s Scholar; president, Women’s Law Caucus. Member of the Board
During the day Mary Jo Heston '80 is U.S. Trustee for Region 18 of the U.S. Department of Justice, with responsibility for the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and Alaska. She devotes her evenings to teaching Bankruptcy as a member of the Puget Sound adjunct faculty. Why does Heston maintain such a hectic schedule? "The reason is simple," she tells us. "The inquisitive, enthusiastic students I meet in class energize and inspire me."

"The best thing about teaching international law is dueling with students who don't believe that it exists or that it matters. I once knew a theologian who felt the same way about discussing religion with athiests: Arguments with true believers are never as exciting as arguments with skeptics."

Professor Geoff Watson
Pictured at left
B.A. cum laude
Yale University
J.D. cum laude
Harvard Law School
Harvard Law Review

"As a lawyer, you may never represent a newspaper company in a free speech case, litigate for the public employment rights of minorities, or defend the procedural rights of criminals. It is unlikely, however, that you will never see a potential federal or state constitutional issue in the course of your practice."

Constitutional Law
Professor David Skover
A.B. Princeton University
J.D. Yale University
Editor, Yale Law Journal

"A teacher has some slight chance to increase the intellectual power of a few individuals. A scholar has a slight chance to influence the course of events in a better, rather than worse, direction. A teacher and scholar of the law can secure a little immortality in both capacities."

Professor James Beaver
B.A. With High Honors
Wesleyan University
Phi Beta Kappa
Fulbright Scholar
University of Vienna
J.D. First in Class
University of Chicago
Order of the Coif
of Governors, Indiana University Institute for Advanced Study. Professor Testy has clerked for Judge Jesse E. Eschbach of the U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit. She has held summer associate positions at the Chicago law firm of Kirkland & Ellis and at Ice Miller Donadio & Ryan in Indianapolis.

Geoffrey R. Watson
Assistant Professor of Law
Contracts, international law, international law of human rights
B.A. cum laude Yale University 1982. J.D. cum laude Harvard Law School 1986, Harvard Law Review. Instructor in legal methods at Harvard Law School 1984-86. Admitted to practice in Massachusetts and U.S. Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit. Professor Watson clerked for the Honorable Harrison L. Winter, Chief Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit. Recently she served in the U.S. Department of State, Office of the Legal Adviser, specializing in international criminal law and in legal aspects of U.S. policy toward the Middle East. She participated in the negotiation of extradition and mutual legal assistance treaties and traveled on diplomatic missions to Asia, Europe, and the Middle East. She has been a guest lecturer at Boalt Hall, Catholic Law School, and Georgetown School of Foreign Service and is a member of the American Society of International Law.

Joan Duffy Watt
Associate Dean
B.A. cum laude and With Distinction University of Washington 1969, Phi Beta Kappa; Phi Kappa Phi; student body vice president. Before joining the Law School administrative staff in 1980, Associate Dean Watt served for seven years as director of public relations for the University of Puget Sound. She is a former reporter for the Seattle Post-Intelligencer and has written numerous free-lance articles for the Seattle Times and other newspapers. At the Law School, she holds responsibility for management of admission, alumni/ae affairs, career services, financial aid, marketing, and institutional advancement. She serves as senior editor for all major Law School publications, many of which have won national awards, and also is active in the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).

John Weaver
Professor of Law
Basic and advanced real estate, legal drafting, real property
A.B. Dartmouth College 1966. J.D. magna cum laude University of Michigan Law School 1969, Law Review. Before becoming one of the original members of the Law School faculty in 1972, Professor Weaver practiced with the Indianapolis firm of Barnes, Hickam, Pantzer & Boyd. From 1979-80, he was a visiting professor at the Western New England College School of Law. His areas of interest are real property, the legal profession, and legal drafting. Professor Weaver prepared material on estates, future interests, and concurrent interests for the Washington State Bar Association Real Property deskbook and “Plain Language,” a chapter in the Commercial Law deskbook. He is a member of the Tacoma Urban Waterfront Committee.

Kenneth Wing
Professor of Law
Constitutional law, health law
B.A. University of California/Santa Cruz 1968, Regents Scholar. J.D. Harvard Law School 1971. M.P.H. Harvard School of Public Health 1972. Professor Wing served for three years as staff attorney and assistant director of the National Health Law Program in Los Angeles. From 1975-77 he was deputy civil rights officer for the California Department of Health. He has taught at the University of Southern California, Duke University, the University of California/ Los Angeles Schools of Public Health and Law, the University of Oregon, and the University of North Carolina. In 1989 he was named Distinguished Health Law Teacher by the American Society of Law and Medicine. He has published extensively in law publications and public health journals on current health policy issues. He co-authored American Health Law, (1989), and has written a widely used textbook, The Law and the Public’s Health, (3rd ed., 1990).

At Puget Sound the faculty talks and thinks a lot about teaching. It's been that way since the beginning. We keep working at it, trying new ideas, refining old ones, and learning from each other and from our students.”

Professor John Weaver
A.B. Dartmouth College
J.D. magna cum laude
University of Michigan
The Puget Sound Law School’s Legal Writing Program — which has been cited by the American Bar Association as “one of the finest in the nation” — is a three-semester course taught in small sections by full-time instructors who hold Juris Doctor degrees. Included below are their summary credentials.

Laurel Currie Oates
Director

J. Christopher Rideout
Associate Director

Timothy Bakken
Instructor

Robert Chang
Instructor

Anne M. Enquist
Writing Advisor

Marc Lampson
Instructor

Susan McClellan
Instructor

Nancy Soonpaa
Instructor

David D. Walter
Instructor

Jennifer Zavatsky
Instructor

ADJUNCT FACULTY
The Law School retains the services of experienced members of the bench and bar to offer courses in their specialized fields. Those persons listed here teach on a regular basis in an adjunct capacity. On occasion, the Law School invites other outstanding practitioners to offer courses on timely topics.

Gerry Alexander
Judge, Washington State Court of Appeals, Division II
Professional responsibility

Margaret Armancas-Fisher
Attorney at Law
Clinical programs, street law

Lynda L. Brothers
Of Counsel, Davis Wright Tremaine
Environmental law

Rosanne Buckner
Judge, Pierce County Superior Court
Trial advocacy
B.A. Ohio State University 1971, Phi Beta Kappa. J.D. Case Western Reserve University 1975.

James Dolliver
Justice, Washington State Supreme Court
Appellate advocacy

LaVerne Dotson
Senior Tax Partner, Deloitte & Touche
Taxation

“Teaching law while serving in the Legislature allows me to combine intellectual theory with practical politics. Neither one is complete without the other, and students deserve the chance to understand both.”
State Representative
Art Wang ’84
Chair of the House Revenue Committee
Teacher of Legislative Seminar and State & Local Taxation
"My experience with Puget Sound law students over the years has convinced me that they are willing to work hard today to become tomorrow's dedicated professionals. It's a pleasure to observe former students at the courthouse as they artfully practice the skills they learned at UPS."

Adjunct Professor
Michael Riggio '76
Litigation Attorney
Graham & Dunn
ADMISSION AND FINANCIAL AID

ADMISSION

In determining those applicants who will be admitted to the School of Law, the Faculty Admission Committee places primary emphasis on three factors:

- performance on the Law School Admission Test (LSAT);
- the undergraduate academic record;
- personal accomplishments.

Each applicant file is reviewed individually by a minimum of two evaluators. In all cases, personal accomplishments weigh heavily in the admission decision. Such factors may include exceptional professional achievement or community service, outstanding performance in a rigorous program of study, and/or unique talents or backgrounds which will contribute specially and significantly to the Law School entering class.

The University of Puget Sound School of Law is committed to a wholly nondiscriminatory admission policy and philosophy. We encourage applications from all persons, regardless of sex, age, race, religion, national origin, familial status, sexual orientation, or disability.

Admission Requirements

1. As a candidate for admission, you must have earned a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university prior to enrollment.
2. In addition, you must have received a competitive score on the Law School Admission Test and must register with the Law School Data Assembly Service. LSAT scores normally are considered valid for three years. We may consider older scores in selected cases.
3. Because the applicant pool has risen sharply in the past few years, we advise you to submit your Application for Admission and support materials at the earliest possible date and to complete your applicant file no later than April 1. The Faculty Admission Committee makes 90 percent of all final admission decisions between March 1 and May 1.
4. We will consider a select few highly qualified applicants taking the LSAT in February 1993 and the following June. However, these applicants should submit all other required application materials by April 1 in order to ensure full consideration by the Admission Committee.
5. If an admitted student does not register in the year for which he or she was accepted, another formal application for admission is necessary. This consists only of a new application and the application fee. We hold other required documents for three years.

Please note that an admission offer in one year does not guarantee such an offer to a candidate the following year(s). If you reapply, you must compete for admission along with candidates for that current year.

The Application Process

1. Complete the official Application Form enclosed in this Bulletin and submit it to the Office of Admission, along with the following:

- An application fee of $50 in the form of a check or money order made payable to the University of Puget Sound School of Law. This fee is a processing charge and is non-refundable.
- A personal statement which is typed, double-spaced, and signed. Please restrict the statement to two or three pages. We cannot ensure that the Admission Committee will read submissions exceeding this length.

When submitting your application for admission, you may include a resume or a sample of written work if you believe that such material will convey important information not otherwise available to the Admission Committee. We appreciate your cooperation in keeping additional material brief.

While the application deadline is April 1, we nevertheless encourage you to submit your application and support materials at the earliest possible date. You need not wait until you have taken the LSAT and/or received your score.

2. Take the Law School Admission Test. You may obtain application forms for the test and important information about it from your local college or university, the Law School, or from Law School Admission Services, Box 2000, Newtown, PA 18940, (215) 968-1300.
3. Register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Information pertaining to this service and application forms for it are contained in the current LSAT/LSDAS registration packet, available at the Law School or from Law School Admission Services at the address noted earlier.
4. Send transcripts of all your undergraduate college work directly to LSDAS. If admitted, you must submit an official transcript showing the award of a bachelor’s degree prior to enrollment in the Law School. Transcripts mailed earlier to LSDAS do not meet this requirement.

Were you enrolled at Puget Sound today, you might find yourself seated in class between a recent college graduate and a senior university administrator. In the library, you might share a study table with a practicing journalist and a former high school debate coach. At lunch, you might exchange opinions with a physician and a psychologist. These energetic thinkers from all walks of life will become your teachers, your advocates, your friends.

Pictured here:
Cresey Stewart ’93
B.A. cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa
Occidental College
NCAA All-American
National Record Holder
NCAA III 1500 m
If you have earned a graduate degree, request that the institution at which you earned the degree send an official graduate school transcript to LSDAS.

5. Arrange to have two individuals (not related to you by blood or marriage) complete and submit to the Office of Admission a copy of the Applicant Evaluation Form included in this Bulletin. Written letters of recommendation—in addition to or in lieu of the evaluation form—also are acceptable.

We value in particular evaluations from former instructors or current professional colleagues who can comment on your ability to analyze complex material and to speak and write with fluency, economy, and precision. Evaluations of least significance are those from personal or family friends.

Individuals completing your Applicant Evaluation Forms may mail them directly to the Law School, or they may return them to you for forwarding to the Admission Office if they have enclosed them in a sealed envelope which they have signed and dated across the sealed flap.

6. If you are admitted, submit a $150 advance tuition deposit to the Law School in accordance with instructions in the letter of acceptance. This nonrefundable deposit—due one month after the date of admission—ensures your place in the entering class and is applied to your first semester’s tuition.

ENROLLMENT OPTIONS

One of the most distinctive features of the first-year law program at the University of Puget Sound is the variety of options through which a student may enroll here. You may begin law studies in the summer or the fall, and you may complete your first year in 9, 12, or 15 months.

Full-time, Summer Entry

This option is available to all full-time, regular admittees. Those who exercise it complete a single class in the summer, thereby substantially reducing their fall course load. The course offered during the first summer is Criminal Law for four credits. Two class sections are available: one meeting in the late afternoon and the other, in the evening. Summer term is six weeks.

Part-time, Summer Entry

Designed primarily for persons with employment or personal obligations during the day, this program (evening-only classes) begins in the summer with a single course, Criminal Law, spanning six weeks for four credits.

Course load in fall and spring is four classes for a total of 21 credits. The following summer, a Torts class is scheduled. All classes are held after 6 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

Full-time, Fall Entry

Students enrolling under this option begin studies in the fall taking 16 credits, take another 14 credits in spring, and complete first-year legal studies over the traditional nine-month period. Courses are offered during daytime hours, Monday through Friday.

Alternative Admission

We admit a limited group of applicants each year through a wholly discretionary admission process. The Law School established this program recognizing that the traditional admission criteria (undergraduate grades and/or LSAT scores) in some cases are inadequate predictors of promise for success in law school and in the practice of law.

Among individuals we consider for this program are members of historically disadvantaged or physically challenged groups. Others are students who demonstrate a clear aptitude for law study which may not be reflected in their performance on the Law School Admission Test.

While we base admission to this program more on qualitative than quantitative factors, the process is nevertheless highly competitive. For each candidate admitted, at least 10 others are denied. Enrollment is strictly limited to no more than 10 percent of the entering class.

If you believe that you merit consideration for alternative admission, we urge you to submit your application for admission at the earliest possible date. Rarely are spaces available in the program after April 1. You should have your completed application on file at the Law School by March 1.

Students alternatively admitted commence their studies in June. They enroll in Criminal Law (four credits) and participate in a variety of intensive writing seminars, and sessions on exam-taking and law skills. Participants meet Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for eight weeks.

A faculty supervisor, legal writing faculty, and other support staff offer guidance and support for participants at all stages of the program during the summer, throughout the first year, and thereafter as appropriate.
Admission of Transfer Students
The University of Puget Sound School of Law welcomes applications from transfer students. In addition to the materials required for first-year applicants (see preceding information), as a transfer candidate you must submit an official transcript that covers the entire period of attendance at the law school in which you were previously enrolled, a letter from the dean of that law school certifying that you are in good standing and eligible to return to study, and a class rank. The letter of good standing and class rank must cover the entire period of attendance and must be based on no less than completion of the first year.

Criteria for admission with advanced standing are rigorous. Primary among them is performance in the first year of law school. Past academic achievement, personal accomplishments, and reasons for applying to transfer are also considered. Only first-year course work (maximum of 30 credits) is accepted for purposes of granting advanced standing. No transfer decisions are made until we receive the transcript showing completion of the entire first year of law school.

A student academically ineligible to continue at the law school last attended may not transfer to the Puget Sound Law School.

Admission of Visiting Students
We welcome visiting students in good standing from any ABA-accredited law school who wish to complete a portion of their legal education at Puget Sound. Visiting candidates may use the Application for Admission included in this Bulletin and should contact the Office of Admission at (206) 591-2252 for additional details.

ADMISSION RESOURCES
The Office of Admission is staffed by three professionals who are available to counsel prospective students by appointment. Because applicant volume at Puget Sound has risen dramatically — nearly doubling in the last four years alone — it is now necessary for us to "close" the Admission Office two days a week between January 1 and June 1 to allow ample time for evaluation of candidate files. During the 1992-93 admission year, the office will be open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m.

If you wish to schedule an appointment with an Admission counselor, visit a law school class, participate in a tour of the law center, and/or speak with faculty and current students, please call the Office of Admission at 206-591-2252.

rior to enrollment, you can expect the following financial obligations:

An application fee of $50. This fee accompanies your initial application for admission. It is a processing charge and is nonrefundable.

A tuition deposit of $150. This nonrefundable deposit is applied to your first semester's tuition and ensures you a place in the entering class. The deposit is due one month after the date of admission.

Tuition payment schedules vary depending on the number of credits you take per term. We distribute tuition payment schedules for each type of first-year enrollment option in mid-January. For reference, tuition for entering students in 1992-93 was $12,480. We also mail, on receipt of your application for admission, a comprehensive chart detailing non-tuition costs you can expect to incur.

FINANCIAL AID
Over 80 percent of students pursuing a legal education at the University of Puget Sound receive some form of assistance through what is today the most ambitious and comprehensive aid program in the Law School's history.

All admitted students automatically are considered for Law School-funded scholarships and grants, provided the application for admission is completed by April 1. Candidates who complete their application files early in the admission year generally receive the Admission Committee's priority attention.

LAW SCHOOL-FUNDED PROGRAMS
The School of Law administers an extensive, school-based scholarship program through which nearly $1 million in outright grants is distributed annually to our students. While Puget Sound offers highly competitive awards to entering law students (see below), we hold firmly to the belief that every member of the student body should have the opportunity to compete for scholarship assistance each year. As a result, a full two-thirds of the institution's financial aid budget is reserved for continuing students. This method of allocating school-based financial aid is rare among comparable law schools, many of which exhaust the bulk of their scholarship dollars on at-entry grants.

Among the scholarships and grants available at Puget Sound are those described on the following pages.
University Scholarships for the Study of Law

University Scholarships are full-tuition awards, offered to up to four members of each year's entering class. The Faculty Committee on Admission and Financial Aid selects University Scholars based on evaluation of applicants' statistical profiles (LSAT scores and undergraduate grades); nonstatistical indicators of exceptional promise for the study of law; and the results of a personal interview.

Nominees are invited by letter to make application for these prestigious awards. We limit nominations to no more than 5 percent of the applicant pool. The committee selects finalists from among those nominees who submit applications and supporting materials. These finalists are invited to the Law School, at the institution's expense, to participate in interviews with committee members.

University Scholarships, in the form of full tuition remission, are renewable, with conditions, for the entire term of legal study.

Scholarships At Entry

Scholarships At Entry, in the form of tuition remission, are awarded by the Faculty Committee on Admission and Financial Aid. The committee bases awards on outstanding scholastic achievement, performance on the Law School Admission Test, and other evidence of extraordinary ability and promise.

We automatically consider all admitted students for these scholarships which are renewable, with conditions, for each recipient's full term of legal study. Annual award amounts range from $1,000 to 75 percent tuition remission.

Merit Grants At Entry

The Law School awards Merit Grants, in the form of tuition remission, to approximately 25 percent of each entering class. In determining recipients for these grants, the Faculty Committee on Admission and Financial Aid considers distinctive skills, talents, backgrounds, and other personal characteristics that contribute in important ways to the diversity of our student body.

Merit Grants are renewable, with conditions, for the second, third, and (where applicable) fourth year of legal study. Award amounts range from $1,000 to 50 percent tuition remission.

Diversity Scholarships

Diversity Scholarships recognize outstanding students who are members of underrepresented minority groups and who show clear evidence of overcoming historical disadvantage. Each year, the Faculty Committee on Admission and Financial Aid selects several entering and continuing students to receive these prestigious awards. Scholarship amounts range from $1,500 to $8,000 and may be renewable, with conditions, for the full term of legal study.

Year End Scholarships

Year End Scholarships are awarded to continuing students based on academic rank in class at the end of the first and second years of legal study. Award amounts range from $1,500 to full tuition remission and are given to as many as 60-70 students in each class.

Named Scholarships and Prizes

The School of Law has a growing number of scholarships and prizes made possible by generous gifts from friends and benefactors: George and Eloise Boldt Scholarships Louis Muscek Scholarships Byron D. Scott Scholarships Ben B. Cheney Endowed Legal Writing Scholarships Endowed Faculty Scholarships Thomas and Louise Jones Scholarships John E. Manders Foundation Scholarships Puget Sound Law Alumni/ae Scholarships Fredric D. Metzger Prizes Elizabeth Shackleford Minority Awards Andrew Walkover Memorial Awards for Public Service Davis Wright Tremaine Minority Achievement Scholarships Bogle & Gates Minority Achievement Scholarships Gordon, Thomas, Honeywell, Malanca, Peterson & Daheim Minority Achievement Scholarships Riddell, Williams, Bullitt & Walkinshaw Minority Achievement Scholarships Foster Pepper & Shefelman/The Space Needle Corporation Minority Achievement Scholarships Eligibility for these awards varies and is determined by the donors. Award amounts range from $500 to full tuition remission.

OTHER AID PROGRAMS

For federal and state aid programs, students must demonstrate financial need. Eligible student recipients normally are awarded a combination of government insured loans, work-study, and, as needed, private educational loans. To be considered for need-based aid (including a Stafford Student Loan):

Submit the Puget Sound School of Law Application for Financial Aid; University of Washington graduate Steve Alvarez '93 is an avid runner and a professional musician. In addition to pursuing law studies, he has spent the last year as an intern with the Tacoma law firm of Rovai, Miller, Orlando & Helbling. "I was born in New York City to immigrant parents who came to this country for an opportunity to succeed," he says. "They have instilled in me the desire to seek as much education as possible so I will never have to endure the hardships they experienced."

"Minority students bring a critical, multicultural dimension to our program of legal education, and their many achievements bring distinction to the school."

Joan Duffy Watt
Associate Dean

Pictured at left:
Raymond A. Connell '84
Attorney at Law, Seattle
Member of the Law School Board of Visitors

Susan Hy Le Luong '95 received her undergraduate degree in Economics from Whitman College in 1991, where she was a Dean's List scholar. The Vietnam native, who immigrated to the United States with her family in 1980, is fluent not only in Vietnamese and English, but also in French and in both the Cantonese and Mandarin dialects of Chinese. "With my foreign languages background and a legal degree," she tells us, "I hope to devote my professional attention to international and immigration law."

Past president of the student body at Pierce College, Michelle Boyd '93 is a 1985 Business Administration graduate of the University of Puget Sound, where she was a University Scholar and served as president of the Black Student Union. A single parent and full-time employee of the State Department of Community Development, Michelle and teammate Vonda Sargent '94 won semi-finalist honors at the national Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competition last spring. The Ohio native is the Davis Wright Tremaine Minority Achievement Scholar.
Complete the standard Financial Aid Form (FAF) or the Graduate and Professional School Financial Aid Service (GAPSFAAS) form. A form, along with more detailed information on various types of financial aid available to you, is mailed automatically after receipt of your application.

We encourage you to apply for financial aid at the same time you apply to law school, and we urge you to complete paperwork as early as possible. By doing so, you will know the aid for which you qualify long before law school begins.

Stafford Student Loan Program
Stafford Student Loans provide assistance to law students from loans made through banks, credit unions, and savings and loan institutions. The annual interest rate is 8 percent for the first four years of repayment and 10 percent thereafter. No interest accrues while you are enrolled on at least a half-time basis. Repayment of the loan is deferred until six months after you have graduated or otherwise cease to enroll as at least a half-time student.

You must demonstrate financial need for this program. In order to be considered, you must have on file at the Law School the Puget Sound School of Law Application for Financial Aid. In addition, you must complete either an FAF application form or the GAPSFAAS, according to instructions accompanying the application.

Law students may borrow up to $7,500 a year through the Stafford Student Loan Program.

Perkins Student Loan Program
Perkins Student Loans are long-term, low-interest loans provided with federal funds, but awarded by and repayable to the University. Annual rate of interest is 5 percent, interest-free while you are enrolled as at least a half-time student. The loan repayment period begins nine months after you graduate or otherwise withdraw from school.

You must demonstrate financial need for this program. In order to be considered, you must have on file at the Law School the Puget Sound School of Law Application for Financial Aid. In addition, you must complete either an FAF application form or the GAPSFAAS, according to instructions which accompany the application.

Loan amounts range from $500 to $2,400 per year, depending on your level of financial need.

Supplemental Loans to Students
Supplemental Loans to Students provide assistance to law students through loans made by a limited number of lending institutions at an annual interest rate of 7-12 percent. Some banks require that you repay the interest while in school. Other lenders capitalize the accrued interest to the principal balance at the time of repayment.

Eligibility is based on your credit history, rather than on your financial need. However, you still must have on file at the Law School the Puget Sound School of Law Application for Financial Aid. In addition, you must complete either an FAF application form or the GAPSFAAS, according to instructions accompanying the application.

Law students may borrow up to $4,000 per year under the SLS Program.

Additional Loan Programs
Nonfederal loan programs are now available to help those students whose needs are not met fully by other government programs. These loans include the Law Student Loan (up to $15,000 per year) and the Law Access Loan (up to $15,000 per year). Eligibility for the LSL and LAL loans is based on your credit history.

Federal Work-study Program
If you have demonstrated financial need, this program offers you the opportunity to hold positions at the School of Law. Hourly wages are from $3 to $8, depending on the position.

State Work-study Program
The Washington State Work-study Program is designed to help students with financial need secure off-campus, career-related jobs. This innovative program offers you not only the opportunity to earn money while in school, but a head start in career preparation. Wages range from $6 to $15 per hour, depending on the type of position secured.

Other Law-related Jobs for Students
Well over 80 percent of Puget Sound law students have been employed in at least one law firm, legal agency, or other law-related position prior to graduation. Many have held two or three such jobs in order to strengthen and diversify their resumes.

The Office of Career Services each year coordinates on-site interview sessions for law firms, legal agencies, and corporations interested in hiring Puget Sound law students. In addition, a large number of legal employers seek our students by posting vacancy announcements at the Law School and conducting interviews in their own offices. During the last academic year, Career Services posted over 900 such job announcements.
What all this means is that students who wish to hold a law-related job, whether for pay or experience—or both, find an abundance of in-school employment options.

More detailed information about these and other financial assistance programs is contained in the Law School’s Financing Your Education brochure, mailed to you on receipt of your admission application.

HOW TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID

All students who wish to be considered for financial assistance programs must follow the procedures outlined below.

1. Complete the Financial Aid Form (FAF), an application sent to you automatically by the law school once you have applied for admission. This form provides the school with complete, consistent data on which we determine the money you will need to finance your legal education. Financial aid is then awarded to meet your “financial need” as far as it is possible. (The Law School will accept the Graduate and Professional Student Financial Aid Services/GAPSFAS form in lieu of the FAF.)

2. Mail the original form directly to the processor, according to instructions issued in the application packet. Complete this step at the earliest possible date.

3. Complete the Puget Sound School of Law Application for Financial Aid. This application is also mailed automatically to you on receipt of your application for admission.

4. Mail the completed School of Law application to the Norton Clapp Law Center, according to instructions issued in the application packet.

The Office of Financial Aid will notify student applicants as to their eligibility for assistance at the earliest possible date. Awards are made on a first-come, first-served basis, so it is a good idea to apply early.

REVIEW OF TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

As a law student at the University of Puget Sound, then, you will be considered for the following types of financial aid (awarded on an annual basis):

- Law School scholarships and grants
  - $1,000 to full tuition remission
- Named scholarships and prizes
  - $500 to full tuition remission
- Stafford Student Loan
  - Up to $7,500
- Perkins Student Loan
  - $500 to $2,400
- Supplemental Loan to Students
  - Up to $4,000
- Law Student Loan
  - Up to $15,000
- Law Access Loan
  - Up to $15,000
- Federal Work-study employment
  - $800 to $2,200
- State Work-study employment
  - $2,500 to $5,600

As we went to press, the President had just signed into law the Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act. Among the key changes: an increase in the Stafford Student Loan limit to $8,500; an increase in the Supplemental Loan to Students to a maximum of $10,000 per year; and revised processing procedures. Details about these important changes will be in our financial aid brochure, which will be mailed to you on receipt of your application for admission to this Law School.

“Inextricably linked with my attitude toward the law is my commitment to protect the natural world. The most significant challenges facing us today involve questions of regional and global ecology. Yet current controversies over habitat destruction, air and water pollution, global climatic change, and human population growth are merely harbingers of things to come. The law will provide the arena in which these challenges will be met.”

Alan Copsey ‘93
Ph.D. in Ecology
University of Oregon
University Scholar for the Study of Law
1992 Summer Associate
Environmental Protection Agency
INSTITUTIONS REPRESENTED
The following undergraduate colleges and universities are represented by students enrolled at the School of Law during the 1992-93 academic year:

University of Akron
Alaska Pacific University
University of Alaska/Anchorage/Juneau
Alderson-Broaddus College
American University
Amherst College
Arizona State University
University of Arizona
Assumption College
Auburn University
Austin College
Bates College
Berklee College of Music
Bethel College
Boise State University
Boston University
Brigham Young University
Brigham Young University-Hawaii
University of British Columbia
Brown University
California Institute of Technology
California Polytechnic State University/Pomona/San Luis Obispo
California State University/Bakersfield/Chico/Dominguez Hills/Fullerton/Long Beach/Northridge
University of California/Berkeley/Davis/Irvine/Los Angeles/Riverside/San Diego/Santa Barbara/Santa Cruz
Calumet College
Carleton College
Central Missouri State University
Central Washington University
Charter Oak College
University of Chicago
University of Cincinnati
City University
Claremont McKenna College
Columbia College
Columbia University
Concordia College
University of Connecticut
Cornell University
Creighton University
Curry College
Dartmouth College
University of Delaware
University of Denver
Duke University
Eastern Michigan University
Eastern Montana College
Eastern Washington University
Eckerd College
Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
Enskine College
The Evergreen State College
Florida State University
University of Florida
George Fox College
George Washington University
Georgetown University
General Motors Engineering & Management Institute
Goddard College
Gonzaga University
Greenville College
Hamphire College
University of Hartford
Harvard University
Haverford College
University of Hawaii
Humboldt State University
University of Idaho
Illinois State University
University of Illinois
Indiana University
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
University of Iowa
James Madison University
John Jay College of Criminal Justice
Johns Hopkins University
Juniata College
Kansas State University
University of Kansas
University of Kentucky
Kenyon College
Lafayette College
Lake Forest College
Lewis and Clark College
Linfield College
Louisiana Tech University
University of Lowell
Loyola Marymount University
Loyola University
Marquette University
University of Maryland/Baltimore County/College Park
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
University of Massachusetts
McGill University
Mesa State College
Metropolitan State College
Miami University
Michigan State University
Michigan Technological University
University of Michigan
Middlebury College
University of Minnesota/Duluth/Twin Cities
University of Missouri
Montana State University
University of Montana
Mount Holyoke College
Nebraska Wesleyan University
University of Nebraska
University of Nevada/Las Vegas/Reno
New Mexico Institute of Mining & Technology
University of New Mexico
University of New Orleans
New York University
Northern Arizona University
University of Northern Colorado
Northern Michigan University
Northwestern University
University of Notre Dame
Oberlin College
Occidental College
Ohio State University
Ohio University
Oklahoma Baptist University
Oklahoma City University
University of Oklahoma
Olivet College
Oregon State University
University of Oregon
 Pace University
Pacific Lutheran University
University of the Pacific
Pennsylvania State University
University of Pennsylvania
Pepperdine University
Pittsburg State University
University of Pittsburgh
Pitzer College
Pomona College
Portland State University
University of Portland
Prescott College
Princeton University
University of Puget Sound
Purdue University
University of Redlands
Reed College
Roanoke College
Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology
Rutgers University/Camden/New Brunswick
San Diego State University
University of San Diego
San Francisco State University
University of San Francisco
San Jose State University
Santa Clara University
Seattle Pacific University
Seattle University
Smith College
University of South Carolina
Sonoma State University
University of Southern California
University of Southern Colorado
Southern Connecticut State University
Southern Illinois University
Southern Oregon State College
Southwest Texas State University
St. Cloud State University
St. Martin’s College
St. Mary’s College
St. Mary’s University
Stanford University
College of Staten Island
State University of New York/Albany/Buffalo/Elmwood/Regents/Stony Brook
Syracuse University
Temple University
University of Tennessee
Texas A & M University
University of Texas/Arlington/Austin
University of Toledo
Trinity College
Tufts University
U.S. Coast Guard Academy
U.S. Military Academy
U.S. Naval Academy
Utah State University
University of Utah
University of Vermont
Virginia Military Institute
University of Virginia
Walla Walla College
Washington & Lee University
Washington State University
Washington University
University of Washington
Weber State University
Wellesley College
Western Washington University
Westminster College
Whitman College
Whitworth College
Wichita State University
Williamette University
College of William & Mary
William Jewell College
William Paterson College
Williams College
Winona State University
University of Wisconsin/La Crosse/Madison/Oshkosh/Plattville
Yale University
Copyright ©1992
University of Puget Sound
All rights reserved.
This Bulletin may not be reproduced in any form without the written permission of the University of Puget Sound.

Equal Opportunity
The University of Puget Sound School of Law, finding prejudicial discrimination inconsistent with the spirit of free academic inquiry, does not discriminate in education, employment, or provision of services on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, religion, age, marital status, disability, familial status, sexual orientation or Vietnam-era veteran status.

This policy is consistent with relevant federal, state, and local statutes and regulations, including those pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Questions about the application of this policy may be referred to the University's Affirmative Action Officer, (206) 756-3116 or to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at the Department of Privacy of Information

The University of Puget Sound and the School of Law are governed by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (The Buckley Amendment) ensuring the privacy of student records and the accuracy of information contained in those records.
A copy of the University’s policy is available on request.

Academic Standards Code/Student Code of Conduct
Rules governing academic matters at the Law School are contained in the Academic Standards Code and administered by the Law School administration and faculty. Rules governing behavior involving the Law School are contained in the Student Code of Conduct, administered by the Student Conduct Review Board.

Date of Publication
The publication date of the Bulletin is September
1992. The sections on Faculty and Administration, Adjunct Faculty, and Legal Writing Faculty are current for the 1992-93 school year. All other information, unless specifically indicated, also is applicable to the 1992-93 school year.

Reservation of the Right to Change
The School of Law reserves the right to change without prior notice any of the requirements and regulations of the School, the academic calendar, and other regulations affecting the student body which the Law School believes are reasonable, necessary, or both.

No Contract
The information in this Bulletin is not to be regarded as creating a binding contract between the student and the School.

Credits:
Joan Duffy Watt, associate dean and senior editor
Carole Schaffner, publications manager and editor
Joseph Erceg, graphic designer
Jerome Hart, photographer
Evans Typographers, typesetting
Dynagraphics, printer