Social Justice Monday

Event Date | 12:00 – 1:00 pm | Sullivan Hall C5 – Soup Lunch Provided

Criminal, civil, and grand juries have disappeared from the American legal system. Professor Suja Thomas of the Illinois College of Law Urbana-Champaign will explain how federal government and the states have robbed juries of their power over time, despite their significant presence in the Constitution. She will also address how juries can be restored to their rightful place in government.

American Constitutional Society – Reception

Event Date | 1:00 – 2:00 pm | Sullivan Hall Court Level

A reception directly after the Social Justice Monday event on the 20th with guest lecturer Suja Thomas. The SJM event goes from 12 to 12:50pm in room C5, with the reception to begin at 1pm right outside C5. Coffee, tea, and snacks for people to eat and drink while discussing the American Constitution Society and other events we're sponsoring.
