The Federalist Society Presents - The Future of DACA: We Need Immigration Reform and a Path to Citizenship – How Do We Get there?

Oct 16 | 12:00 – 1:00pm | Sullivan Hall C5

Recent changes to immigration enforcement practices and proposed changes to numerous policies leave immigrants, their families, the wider community, and even advocates working in the field uncertain as to what will happen next. This program will offer insight from Stewart Verdery and Matt Adams, each of whom has experience dealing with the ways in which immigration policy is developed and implemented. While both speakers agree that comprehensive immigration reform is necessary, including a path to citizenship for DACA recipients, their ideas about how to get there differ. Professor Bob Chang will moderate a short Q&A following the presentations.
