General Announcements

WSBA Construction Law Section Writing Competition 2017-2018 Announcement

The Construction Law Section Executive Committee of the Washington State Bar Association is pleased to announce its 2017-2018 legal writing competition for law students with a first prize of $2,500 and a second prize of $1,000 to be awarded to the winning submittals, subject to the requirements set forth below. The Construction Law Section provides a forum for members whose practices involve all aspects of construction to learn, contribute and collaborate on construction related topics. These include issues with current large public and private projects, procurement and contract issues, practical construction scenarios, and discussion of the latest court decisions with input from industry specialists and non-attorneys, in order to gain an understanding of construction projects from the smallest residences to the largest buildings and infrastructures. Our members are a mix of those in private, public and in-house practice, who represent federal, state, county, local, city, and special-use agencies, school districts, hospitals, private owners, contractors, engineers, architects, manufacturers, and suppliers. For more information about the section, visit our webpage at <http://www.wsba.org/Legal-Community/Sections/Construction-Law>.
