SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Monday, November 26, 2012

Dear Colleagues,

It's hard to believe that we're in our last week of classes for the semester already. I hope you will all plan to attend the holiday reception on Wednesday, December 5, at The Rainier Club. We are expecting a great turnout of alumni and community members.

Best regards,
Mark

Presentations

Margaret Fisher spoke on a panel at the Colleen Willoughby iVivc Youth Education Awards Ceremony sponsored by the Seattle CityClub, and accepted the award for the Seattle Youth Traffic Court. The Seattle Youth Traffic Court also conducted a youth court hearing with a real defendant at the National Council for the Social Studies conference in Seattle, attended by 3,500 teachers. She will also travel to South Africa in December 2012 to present a session on Street Law at the Global Alliance for Justice Education conference in Durban.

Jack Kirkwood and Dwight Drake (UW) addressed current antitrust issues on a "law school" panel at the 29th Annual Antitrust, Consumer Protection and Unfair Business Practices Seminar sponsored by the Washington State Bar Association. Jack's topic was Is Market Definition on the Way Out?

Lisa Young presented Best Practices in Making Scholarly Presentations at the West Coast Consortium of Academic Support Professionals Conference in Sacramento on November 2. She also moderated, with Louis Schulze of New England School of Law, a roundtable discussion, Writing and Publishing ASP Scholarship: Steps to Get Your Writing Moving.
