Law Review Annual Symposium

February 17 | 9:00am – 5:00pm | Casey Commons, Reception in Atrium

The Seattle University Law Review is pleased to invite you to our annual symposium. This year, the symposium features a series of panels that will explore artificial intelligence and the new challenges it presents for our legal system.

Please see the abbreviated schedule below:

- Welcome Remarks from Dean Annette Clark
- Panel #1: Robotic Speech and the First Amendment
- Keynote Speaker: Ryan Calo, Professor of Law, University of Washington
- Panel #2: Accountability for the Actions of Robots
- Panel #3: Ethical Consideration in Artificial Intelligence

Lunch will be provided for attendees, and a reception with light refreshments will follow the conclusion of the third panel.

If you are able, we are asking attendees for a $5 donation at the door. However, a donation is not required for attendance.

WLC Volunteers at Mary's Place

February 19 | 9:00am – 12:00pm | Mary's Place

Women's Law Caucus will be volunteering with Mary's Place Women's Shelter this President's Day. We are so excited to be returning to Mary's Place this year to provide assistance to this great organization.

Mary's Place was established in 1999 in response to homeless women's cry for a complete resource center. Today, Mary's Place continues to empower homeless women and children to reclaim their lives.

Please join the WLC from 9am-Noon on Monday, February 19th, 2018 if you are interested in volunteering for this event. This is a WLC members-only event, so if you would like to attend, please RSVP to both Cassidy Wisley-Paul Contact Info Redacted and Macaulay Dukes Contact Info Redacted. We look forward to seeing you there!

Invest Impact Drive for the Homeless

February 22 | 9:00am -6:00pm | Sullivan Hall Court Level

The Federalist Society will sponsor a supply drive event for United Way of King County. We will collect essential items for the Invest Impact drive for the homeless this President's Day. The items collected will be included in care packages for United Way's Community Resource Exchange. Please help us meet and exceed our goal of 300 adult socks and 500 hygiene items for men and women from 9am-6pm on Thursday, February 22nd, 2018. Thank you for helping people experiencing homelessness in King County.

1L Mock Trial Competition

Preliminary Round: February 23rd 5PM – 9PM

Quarterfinal/Semi-Final Round: February 24th 10:00 AM – 5PM

Final Round –February 28th 12PM – 2PM

The Seattle University Moot Court Board invites first-year law students to compete in the annual 1L Mock Trial Competition!

This year's competition problem involves a hearing in which U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services has petitioned for the deportation of a United States permanent resident who has recently been detained during re-entry after a trip overseas. One side (plaintiff/petitioner) will argue for deportation, while the other side (defendant/respondent) will argue for the charges to be lifted so that the defendant may remain in the country with his/her family.

To read the problem and SIGN UP, please go to the TWEN "Moot Court Sign Up" page. Then decide which side you would like to represent and sign up with a partner.

Immigration Issues in Civil, Criminal, and Administrative Litigation

February 28 | 5:00 – 8:00pm | Sullivan Hall 2nd Floor Gallery

The student liaisons for the Minority and Justice Commission are pleased to present a panel on immigration issues in civil, criminal, and administrative litigation. We are excited to host seven speakers, who will each provide unique insight into immigration issues affect our court system. Light refreshments will be served, and the guests will enjoy the opportunity to network with our amazing panelists.
