Welcome Back from the SBA

Fellow Students,

A sincere welcome to the classes of 2022, and 2023, and welcome back the classes of 2020 and 2021! As the semester gets started, the Student Bar Association (SBA) would like to take the opportunity to communicate a few items that concern the student body and the semester ahead.

Fall Events: This semester is already off to a great start as student organizations and the SBA has been working with student organizations to bring first class programming to you this semester which will be communicated in future student life publications. One such example is the annual Pro Bono Week, which will feature speakers and informational events that center around the Pro Bono aspect of the practice of law, a centerpiece in our social justice mission; this event will take place in mid-October.

Judicial Board Vacancy: The SBA Judicial board is the adjudicative entity of our student government. Judicial board officers are appointed by the current sitting president of the Student Bar Association and confirmed by the Governing Council. Judicial Board Officers serve until so long as they as are an enrolled student at the law school in good standing. If you are interested in the position or would like more information, please contact Efrain Hudnell at: Contact Info Redacted

Constitution drafting Update: The constitution drafting sub-committee has been working all summer long and plans to deliver a publishable document to the student body on or about October 1st. Once the draft constitution is published, the sub-committee will shift to begin drafting by-laws. If you are interested in participating in the bylaws drafting process, please contact the Committee Chair, Samantha Mintz-Gentz, at: Contact Info Redacted If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please email the SBA Secretary at: Contact Info Redacted

You can also attend an SBA meeting which are generally held every other Thursday at noon, in room 109/100; please note that recognition of ad-hoc requests are subject to availability based on priority of previously.

We look forward to the semester ahead and the good work to be done!

Respectfully,

– Your student Bar Association
