ABOUT THE ARTIST

Seattle-based artist, Dominique Miller, has been honing her skills since she was a child. Self-taught, she began drawing as a means of distraction and quickly fell in love with creating. When she was young, she created graphite and digital portraits with surreal elements, trying to unfold a hidden story with each stroke of the pencil. Later, she began experimenting with paint; beginning with oil portraits, and more recently branching out to acrylics and latex since beginning a career as a muralist in 2022.
