

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

---

VOLUME 44

FALL 2020

NUMBER 1

---

ESSAYS

- |   |                            |    |
|---|----------------------------|----|
| Enough Is as Good as a Feast  | Noah C. Chauvin     | 1  |
| Justice Sonia Sotomayor: The Court's Premier Defender of the Fourth Amendment | David L. Hudson Jr. | 19 |

ARTICLES

- |   |                             |     |
|---|-----------------------------|-----|
| Court-Packing in 2021: Pathways to Democratic Legitimacy                                      | Richard Mailey       | 35  |
| Government Tweets, Government Speech: The First Amendment Implications of Government Trolling | Douglas B. McKechnie | 69  |
| Preservation Requests and the Fourth Amendment  | Armin Tadayon        | 105 |

NOTES

- |   |                      |     |
|---|----------------------|-----|
| "Public Use" or Public Abuse? A New Test for Public Use in Light of Kelo                     | Taylor Haines | 149 |
| The Weaponization of the "Alien Harboring" Statute in a New-Era of Racial Animus Towards Immigrants | Hannah Hamley | 171 |

COMMENT

- |  |                      |     |
|--|----------------------|-----|
| "Don't Move": Redefining "Physical Restraint" in Light of a United States Circuit Court Divide | Julia Knitter | 205 |
|--|----------------------|-----|