

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

---

VOLUME 45

FALL 2021

NUMBER 1

---

BERLE XII: CORPORATE CAPITALISM AND THE CITY OF GOD

SYMPOSIUM ARTICLES

Shareholder Meetings and Freedom Rides: The Story of Peck v. Greyhound	Harwell Wells	1
Investors as International Law Intermediaries: Using Shareholder Proposals to Enforce Human Rights	Kishanthi Parella	41
Adolf Berle's Corporate Conscience	Elizabeth Sepper &amp; James D. Nelson	97
Bargaining Justice: Negotiating Law in an Indian Bazaar	Andy Rotman	131
The Corporation as Trinity	David Skeel	155
Corporate Entanglement with Religion and the Suppression of Expression	Ronald J. Colombo	187
Spirit of the Corporation	Russell Powell	241
A Brief Reflection on Spirit of the Corporation	Russell Powell	291
The Virginia Company to Chick-fil-A: Christian Business in America, 1600–2000	Joseph P. Slaughter	295
Religious Roots of Corporate Organization	Amanda Porterfield	337
The Beginning of History for Corporate Law: Corporate Government, Social Purpose and The Case of Sutton's Hospital (1612)	David Smith	367
Sacred Corporate Law	Giancarlo Anello, Mohamed Arafa &amp; Sergio Alberto Gramitto Ricci	413