

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 48

FALL 2024

NUMBER 1

ARTICLES

- | | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|-----|
| The First Amendment to the Constitution, Associational Freedom, and the Future of the Country: Alabama's Direct Attack on the Existence of the NAACP | Dr. Helen J. Knowles-Gardner | 1 |
| A Blueprint to Reclaim Legal Education from External Rankers | Scott Rempell | 57 |
| Prejudice Standards in Washington's Appellate Courts | Andrew B. Van Winkle | 123 |

NOTES

- | | | |
|---|-------------------------|-----|
| Real-World Consequences for Online Actions: The Case for Expanding Employee Harassment Protection via Employers' Rights of Action | Alexander Barnes | 165 |
| The Consumer's Choice to Boycott | Agnes Bresee | 185 |
| Foreseeability and Duty in Washington Negligence Law: Leaving the Road Less Traveled By | Leo Linder | 203 |
| What Is in Your Tampon? Increasing Transparency in Menstrual Products | Elianna Spitzer | 229 |

COMMENT

- | | | |
|--|--------------------------|-----|
| Henderson and the Objective Observer Standard: The Future of Race-Conscious Standards Post- Students for Fair Admissions | Gabriela Dionisio | 255 |
|--|--------------------------|-----|