

Access to Health and Health Services: The COVID-19 Experience

4th Annual Innovation and Technology Law Conference

Seattle University School of Law

June 4, 2021

Ana Santos Rutschman, SJD, LL.M.
St. Louis University School of Law

Access to Vaccines: The COVID-19 Experience

Starting point

- Health justice is (also) about technology policy
- COVID-19 is (hopefully) an abnormal event
 - But nonetheless catalytic for long-term legal and policy change

“Access”

- Vaccine availability (development & manufacturing)
- Vaccine allocation
- Vaccine affordability

Emerging solutions?

Patent Pools

Pooled Procurement

Patent Waivers

Waive Covid vaccine patents to put world on war footing

7 March 2021

Authors

Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus

Director-General, World
Health Organization
WHO

Questions?

- ana.rutschman@slu.edu